Taming the Guerrilla in International Commercial Arbitration

Navin G. Ahuja, 2022-05-23 The book explores the definition and nature of guerrilla tactics in international commercial arbitration It analyses various such tactics deployed pre Covid and during Covid times and portrays them in a way that enables one to visualise how and possibly why they might be deployed Attempts to codify ethical standards and rules regulating the behaviour of legal representatives in international arbitration are examined The book covers a range of culture clashes addresses several elephants in the room and looks at factors inherent in the arbitral process that create opportunities and increase temptations to misbehave. It considers the remedies and sanctions available in international arbitration and compares them to those available to the courts in civil litigation. In addition to recommendations for future research the book offers solutions to curb the problem in line with party autonomy and with a critical analysis. This manuscript is an essential solutions based text that not only addresses a comprehensive range of modern day guerrilla tactics in international commercial arbitration but also offers thoughtful methods to deal with the shenanigans that parties may bring to the arbitral process. Chiann Bao Independent Arbitrator Arbitration Chambers and Vice President of the International Chamber of Commerce Court of Arbitration Dr Ahuja's book is a thoughtful and highly practical contribution to the study of procedures in international commercial arbitration. It is replete with scholarly analysis, careful treatment of authority, pragmatic insights and policy discussions. Any practitioner or student of international arbitration would benefit from this volume.

Gary Born Author International Commercial Arbitration 3d ed 2021 A highly readable and informative book which identifies and analyses the numerous guerrilla tactics parties may attempt to deploy in international commercial arbitration the factors which may encourage such behaviour and practical mechanisms to keep the proceedings on track. Both erudite and practical this book is a must read for parties, counsel and arbitrators alike.

Prof Benjamin Hughes Independent Arbitrator The Arbitration Chambers Guerrilla tactics are a pertinent problem in arbitration. Dr Ahuja's well written book not only describes the various tactics in a succinct way but provides extremely useful guidance on how to tackle them. It will be a primary source of reference for every practitioner faced with such tactics.

Prof Dr Stefan Krill Chairman of the Board of Directors of the German Arbitration Institute DIS Taming the Guerrilla in International Commercial Arbitration offers a refreshingly candid and balanced discussion of sharp practices in international arbitration. The book collects a wealth of information on guerrilla tactics previously only available in separate survey reports, articles and guidelines on the topic. It additionally includes a chapter addressing tactics deployed in virtual or remote arbitrations due to the Covid 19 pandemic. The comprehensive research and analysis presented in this book make it a valuable resource to counsel, parties, arbitrators, academics and those who deliver practical arbitration training.

A must read for those who want to better understand the practices that may lead some to disfavor arbitration and ways the arbitration community can respond to guerrilla tactics to improve the arbitration process for all participants.

Dana MacGrath Independent Arbitrator MacGrath Arbitration From an unreasoned fiat of a wise man who left both sides equally unhappy but resolved the disputes effectively arbitration has evolved into a full scale trial before a party chosen tribunal. Its informality and expedition puts in peril the fundamental right of the recalcitrant to delay proceedings.

Dr Ahuja has assiduously articulated the measures aptly christened Guerrilla Tactics used to disrupt and derail arbitrations. An indispensable read for the practitioner and an insightful treatise for the policy maker.

Harish Salve SA QC Blackstone Chambers This book shines a spotlight on arbitration's dark arts guerrilla tactics. Dr Ahuja illuminates this shadowy world with excellent and much needed scholarship that is practice based and useful for all stakeholders in arbitration His examination of the root causes of this problem recommendations on how to control it comparisons with litigation practice and suggestions for future research marvellously combine to make this a work that is required to be consulted by all serious counsel arbitrators institutions and academics in the field of arbitration Romesh Weeramantry Head International Dispute Resolution Centre for International Law National University of Singapore

The DIS Arbitration Rules Gustav Flecke-Giammarco, Christopher Boog, Siegfried H. Elsing, Peter Heckel, Anke Meier, 2020-03-20 The new arbitration rules of the German Arbitration Institute Rules entered into force on 1 March 2018. Drafted over an intense period of eighteen months by a committee of globally recognized experts with the active participation of nearly 300 arbitration practitioners the Rules stand poised to attract parties seeking dispute resolution not only in Germany but also internationally. This extraordinary book written by the drafters themselves with more than 550 pages of comprehensive article by article commentary is filled with practical insights and recommendations regarding the application of the Rules. Each provision of the new Rules is given its own chapter in which the following issues and topics are examined in depth for the specific rule under analysis: use of the provision in practice, modifications from the corresponding provision in the 1998 Rules, relationship to the relevant sections of the German Code of Civil Procedure, comparison with relevant regulations and practices in German State court proceedings, detailed expert commentary including analysis of case law and legal scholarship, DIS practice concerning the application of the provision and comparison with similar provisions in other arbitration rules. An annex contains an extensive collection of reference materials including forms, schedule of costs and texts of various international arbitration documents. The authors and editors have vast experience as counsel and arbitrators in proceedings conducted under the auspices of the DIS and other arbitral institutions. Their intimate familiarity with all aspects of DIS case administration is of immeasurable value to all stakeholders in arbitral proceedings. A genuine user's guide, the book explains how the new Rules are likely to be applied in practice by the arbitral institution, arbitrators and parties. Its practical tips regarding the effective conduct of DIS arbitrations elucidate best practices for counsel and arbitrators and make DIS day to day case management and decision making processes more transparent and predictable for users of all levels of experience and expertise.
