2015 List Of Novels For Jss 3:

Novel Indicators and Strategies for Prevention and Management of Physical and Cognitive Frailty in Aging Population Xin Jiang,Jing Liao,Junhong Zhou,Yurun Cai,2023-11-17 Frailty is a condition phenotype of decreased functional capacities across multiple bio physiological indicators as a person ages Older adults in many instances can suffer from frailty syndromes and their consequence of poor health including e g increased risk of falls disabled mobility etc The appropriate characterization of frailty and its related physical and mental components is thus of great importance to help predict the risk of frailty syndromes and to optimize management and rehabilitation programs The ultimate goals is to minimize the burden of frailty in older adults The frailty syndromes are generally measured by using different established protocols such as Fried s Frailty Criteria and conceptualized by simply accumulating the measured syndromes Recent research works have shown that frailty not only arises from diminished physical function but also from multiple other types of functional decline such as cognitive impairment and abnormalities in vascular system e g hypertension Moreover these conditions are not distinct or isolated from each other but closely interact and interconnected These interactions may play critical roles in the development of frailty Therefore it is worthwhile to re conceptualize frailty by implementing advanced technologies to measure the characteristics of functions that are pertaining to frailty and to explore the inter relationships between them Thus we can discover novel indicators to predict frailty and can develop novel strategies to optimize the management and rehabilitation of frailty The overall goal of this research topic is to share and discuss recent achievements on understanding the pathology of frailty and its related bio physiological characteristics to identify novel indicators that can help predict the incidence of frailty and to help optimize strategies for the prevention and management of frailty in aging population

Telling Stories with Data Rohan Alexander,2023-07-27 The book equips students with the end to end skills needed to do data science That means gathering cleaning preparing and sharing data then using statistical models to analyse data writing about the results of those models drawing conclusions from them and finally using the cloud to put a model into production all done in a reproducible way At the moment there are a lot of books that teach data science but most of them assume that you already have the data This book fills that gap by detailing how to go about gathering datasets cleaning and preparing them before analysing them There are also a lot of books that teach statistical modelling but few of them teach how to communicate the results of the models and how they help us learn about the world Very few data science textbooks cover ethics and most of those that do have a token ethics chapter Finally reproducibility is not often emphasised in data science books This book is based around a straight forward workflow conducted in an ethical and reproducible way gather data prepare data analyse data and communicate those findings This book will achieve the goals by working through extensive case studies in terms of gathering and preparing data and integrating ethics throughout It is specifically designed around teaching how to write about the data and models so aspects such as writing are explicitly covered And finally the use of GitHub and the open source statistical language R are built in throughout the book Key Features Extensive code examples Ethics integrated throughout Reproducibility integrated throughout Focus on data gathering messy data and cleaning data Extensive formative assessment throughout A Key to Locked Doors ,2024-08-26 Gerrit Bos Ph D 1989 is Professor Emeritus of Jewish Studies at the University of Cologne He has published extensively in the fields of Jewish studies Islamic studies and medieval science and medicine in Arabic and Hebrew texts In July 2023 he celebrated his 75th birthday On this occasion his colleagues and students presented him with a Festschrift containing over twenty original papers They deal with various topics belonging to his wider fields of interest ranging from the Ancient Orient Jewish and Islamic theology and philosophy medicine and natural sciences in medieval Islamicate and European countries to Romance philology and linguistics
