The Well-Educated Mind: A Guide to the Classical Education You Never Had Susan Wise Bauer, 2003-08-17 An engaging accessible guide to educating yourself in the classical tradition. Have you lost the art of reading for pleasure? Are there books you know you should read but haven't because they seem too daunting? In The Well Educated Mind Susan Wise Bauer provides a welcome and encouraging antidote to the distractions of our age: electronic and otherwise. In her previous book The Well Trained Mind the author provided a road map of classical education for parents wishing to home school their children, and that book is now the premier resource for home schoolers. In this new book Bauer takes the same elements and techniques and adapts them to the use of adult readers who want both enjoyment and self improvement from the time they spend reading. The Well Educated Mind offers brief, entertaining histories of five literary genres: fiction, autobiography, history, drama, and poetry, accompanied by detailed instructions on how to read each type. The annotated lists at the end of each chapter, ranging from Cervantes to A.S. Byatt, Herodotus to Laurel Thatcher Ulrich, preview recommended reading and encourage readers to make vital connections between ancient traditions and contemporary writing. The Well Educated Mind reassures those readers who worry that they read too slowly or with below average comprehension: If you can understand a daily newspaper, there's no reason you can't read and enjoy Shakespeare's Sonnets or Jane Eyre. But no one should attempt to read the Great Books without a guide and a plan. Susan Wise Bauer will show you how to allocate time to your reading on a regular basis, how to master a difficult argument, how to make personal and literary judgments about what you read, how to appreciate the resonant links among texts within a genre, what does Anna Karenina owe to Madame Bovary, and also between genres. Followed carefully the advice in The Well Educated Mind will restore and expand the pleasure of the written word.

Christian Home Educators' Curriculum Manual Cathy Duffy, 1995 The premiere guide for choosing homeschool curriculum. For beginners or veterans, Cathy helps you wade through the curriculum jungle to choose what's right for each of your children. Reviews of hundreds of books, games, videos, computer programs, parent helps, and much, much more for all subjects. Learning styles: Cathy helps you determine each child's learning style, then choose methods and resources that fit each child. What your child needs to know, what is typically taught at each grade level. Which resources allow your children to work independently, which work best, taught one on one. Identifying and dealing with learning disabilities, plus a list of consultants for extra help. Testing: the good and bad of testing, different kinds of tests, where to get them, testing services. Addresses, phone numbers, faxes, e-mail and web sites for all publishers and distributors. How to consolidate your shopping and save shipping costs.

The Well-Trained Mind Susan Wise Bauer, Jessie Wise, 2009-05-04 If you're a parent who has decided to educate your children yourself, this book is the first you should buy. Washington Times. The Well Trained Mind will instruct you step by step on how to give your child an academically rigorous, comprehensive education from preschool through high school, one that will train him or her to read, to think, to understand, to be well rounded and curious about learning Veteran home educators Jessie Wise and Susan Wise Bauer outline the classical pattern of education called the trivium which organizes learning around the maturing capacity of the child's mind and comprises three stages the elementary school grammar stage the middle school logic stage and the high school rhetoric stage Using this theory as your model you'll be able to instruct your child in all levels of reading writing history geography mathematics science foreign languages rhetoric logic art and music regardless of your own aptitude in those subjects This newly revised edition contains completely updated ordering information for all curricula and books new and expanded curricula recommendations new material on using computers and distance learning resources answers to common questions about home education information about educational support groups and advice on practical matters such as working with your local school board preparing a high school transcript and applying to colleges El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006 Homeschooling Almanac, 2000-2001 Mary Leppert,Michael Leppert,1999 How to start where to go who to call the best web sites catalogs support groups homeschooling conferences current state laws complete reference guide to educational supplies Cover
