An Emergent Theology For Emerging Churches:

An Emergent Theology for Emerging Churches Ray S. Anderson, 2006-07-07 If the emerging church movement is looking for a theology Ray Anderson offers clear and relevant theological guidance for it in this timely book Reaching back through time Anderson roots an emergent theology in what happened at Antioch where Saul Paul and Barnabas were set apart for a mission to establish churches outside of Jerusalem among Gentiles who had to be reached in their own cultures He shows how the Lord Holy Spirit himself revolutionized and inspired how the message of salvation was offered to others and provided a model to follow Explaining that an emergent theology is messianic revelational kingdom coming and eschatological this book addresses many of the concerns of those looking for a church that is contemporary yet true to the gospel If you wrestle with the challenges that face the church in these postmodern days you will benefit from this book

Baptists and the Emerging Church Movement David Mark Rathel, 2014-07-24 In Baptists and the Emerging Church Movement David Rathel examines the major ecclesiological proposals of the emerging church movement Though many theologians argue that the emerging church movement emphasizes epistemology Rathel contends that its primary concern is ecclesiology Emerging church leaders offer a number of important ecclesiological proposals including restructuring traditional church leadership models to accommodate the rise of postmodernity changing the mission of the church so that the church may strike a more missional tone in contemporary culture removing the categories of in or out within the church body and adopting the multi site church model In assessing these proposals Rathel draws upon historic Baptist convictions about the nature of the church using Baptists ecclesiological distinctives and long history of ecclesiological thought as a helpful reference point This book will not only serve as a guide for those who wish to learn of emerging church ecclesiology it will also be an aid to Baptists who wish to evaluate recent trends in ecclesiology in light of their denominational distinctives

Christian Education and the Emerging Church Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today's church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos

Theology in the Present Age Christopher Ben Simpson,Steven D. Cone,2013-08-23 This volume of essays centers on the theme of doing Christian theology in the present postmodern context a consistent theme of the teaching of John D Castelein The work will celebrate and honor John s years of service by representing reflections of his teaching in the thought of his students and colleagues The essays range over such topics as theological reflections on the postmodern philosophical themes the relations between Christian theology and culture the contributions of philosophical hermeneutics for Christian theology and the challenges of engaging in ministry in a postmodern context The seventeen contributors to the volume are former students and both present and former colleagues involved in various ministries be they in a college setting or in a local church

Servantship Graham Joseph Hill, 2013-10-10 Servantship is essentially about following our Lord Jesus Christ the servant Lord and his mission it is a life of discipleship to him patterned after his self emptying humility sacrifice love values and mission Servantship is humbly valuing others more than yourself and looking out for the interests and wellbeing of others Servantship is the cultivation of the same attitude of mind Christ Jesus had making yourself nothing being a servant humbling yourself and submitting yourself to the will and purposes of the triune God Since servantship is the imitation of Christ it involves an unreserved participation in the missio Dei the Trinitarian mission of God In this pioneering work sixteen servants describe the four movements of radical servantship Servantship is the movement 1 from leadership to radical servantship 2 from shallowness to dynamic theological reflection 3 from theories to courageous practices and 4 from forgetfulness to transforming memory Servantship recognizes in word thought and deed that whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be first must be your slave just as the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many

Yes in Christ Howard A. Snyder, 2011 The promises of God formed the basis of John Wesley's optimism of grace Wesley believed God not only could but in fact would fulfill all his promises to bring salvation to the nations to make new heavens and a new earth to liberate the whole creation from its bondage to decay Rom 8 21 This collection of essays by respected Wesleyan theologian Howard A Snyder reflects the spirit of Wesley's optimism of grace The first half of this collection offers an overview of Wesley's theology and practice particularly with regard to gospel mission and culture Part Two examines the inter dynamic between church renewal and global mission The collection also includes Wesleyan appraisals of Clark Pinnock's theology and the ecclesiology of Karl Barth Howard A Snyder serves as distinguished professor and chair of Wesley Studies at Tyndale Seminary in Toronto Ontario Canada Previously he was professor of history and theology of mission in the E Stanley Jones School of World Mission and Evangelism at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore Kentucky from 1996 to 2006 He has also taught at United Theological Seminary Dayton Ohio and pastored in Chicago and Detroit He has written numerous books including The Problem with Wineskins IVP The Radical Wesley IVP and most recently Populist Saints B T and Ellen Roberts and The Birth of Free Methodism Eerdmans

Toward a Twenty-First Century Biblical, Apostolic Church SuYeon Yoon, 2019-09-19 This book explores biblical values that critique the ecclesiology of the New Apostolic Reformation Church NARC and compares the ecclesiology to other missional movements in the North American context A biblical exegesis of Ephesians 4 11 13 as well as C Peter Wagner's conceptualization of an apostle and apostolic ministry allow the author to demonstrate the gap between the biblical perspective and Wagner's concept of an apostle The biblical role of an apostle is to make the church missional by emphasizing the concept of sending whereas Wagner sees the apostle as a church leader Based upon interviews and participant observation in three NARCs SuYeon Yoon describes the leadership and ecclesiology based on their own self descriptions This book then demonstrates the gap between the biblical and conceptual ideals and the reality of ecclesial practice The author argues that the NARC serves as a charismatic manifestation of a similar cultural response to establish a relational structure for church communities that can appropriately reflect upon and identify with the contemporary context This implies that each movement needs to be biblically sound faithful to its conceptualization and relevant to the context in order to cultivate its own way of being the church The Theology of Dallas Willard Gary Black Jr.,2013-08-06

Evangelical Christianity in the United States is currently in a dramatic state of change Yet amidst this sometimes tumultuous religious environment a rather unique blend of both ancient and contemporary Christian theology has found its way into the hearts and minds of emerging generations of Christians The Theology of Dallas Willard both describes and conveys the essence of this increasingly popular and perhaps mediating view of the gospel of Jesus Christ Blending both a prophetic critique with pastoral encouragement Willard s unique understanding of the reality present within a life lived as a disciple of Jesus in the kingdom of God is attracting both new and traditional Christians to reconsider their faith Becoming Conversant with the Emerging Church D. A. Carson,2009-05-26 A careful and informed assessment of the emerging church by a respected author and scholar The emerging church movement has generated a lot of excitement and exerts an astonishingly broad influence Is it the wave of the future or a passing fancy Who are the leaders and what are they saying The time has come for a mature assessment D A Carson not only gives those who may be unfamiliar with it a perceptive introduction to the emerging church movement but also includes a skillful assessment of its theological views Carson addresses some troubling weaknesses of the movement frankly and thoughtfully while at the same time recognizing that it has important things to say to the rest of Christianity The author strives to provide a perspective that is both honest and fair Anyone interested in the future of the church in a rapidly changing world will find this an informative and stimulating read D A Carson Ph D University of Cambridge is research professor of New Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield Illinois He is the author of over 45 books including the Gold Medallion Award winning book The Gagging of God and is general editor of Telling the Truth and Worship by the Book He has served as a pastor and is an active guest lecturer in church and academic settings around the world The Worship Architect Constance M.
