• Reverend Martin Luther King: King, a powerful orator, was a leading civil rights activist during the Civil Rights Movement in the 1960s. He was assassinated in 1968. King's "I Have a Dream" speech, delivered on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963, is one of the most famous speeches in American history. In the speech, King called for an end to racial segregation and discrimination and the realization of the principles of the Declaration of Independence. He said, "I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.'"
