Yepes,2014-08-05 The Hotel Transylvania is my third novel set in the eighteenth century Together with Child of Europe and An Outsider Among the Thespians they form a trio I propose to call it The Enlightenment Trilogy I first became interested in the person of Franois II Rkczi Prince of Transylvania when I read Gyula Szckfs 1909 monograph The Exiled Rkczi See the appendix I was very impressed with Szekfs unmatched scholarship Sz was an archivist in Vienna and had unlimited access to the primary sources Equally I was captivated by the novelistic possibilities The juxtaposition of Rkczi the Jansenist recluse and the gambling house at the Hotel fascinated me However I sensed that Szekf had an ideological bias with which I disagreed This book is neither an historical nor political treatise but a novel that is largely fiction Ive perused a great deal of material in English Hungarian and French etc while doing research for the novel And I have returned to both Hungary and Paris to take a personal look at the scenes I have had gracious help wherever I went and explained the project Where I could identify the exact date of a book or quote I did so Otherwise I gave the authors name and years I have slightly modified a short French poem by Dorothy L Sayers and used Richard Wilburs excellent translations from Racine and Moliere The other translations unless otherwise noted are mine I would like to thank my sister Mrs Sirtin Gyepes Judit not only for her literary review but also for many of the sources My niece Ms Barbara Gyepes Giammona did the editing work and Ms Evelyne Pnia Fodor thoroughly reviewed and edited all the French aspects

Finally my sincere thanks to Ms Adele Katz who valiantly struggled through the handwritten manuscript and the many subsequent drafts To all of them MERCI thank you

Medieval Occitania a geographical and linguistic area often referred to as the South of France the South the Midi or more loosely Provence was politically diverse but culturally coherent It was here that the troubadours created Courtly Love and a new poetic language which together were to affect the whole course of European literature and sensibilities The essays made readily accessible in this collection reflect the author's many sided interests in the troubadours and the society from which they sprang the historical and cultural place of the women forming the ostensible objects of their desire veneration or anxieties the extent to which French notions of chivalry penetrated the South the nature and meaning of various elements of court culture the precocious development of medical science in this region its complex responses to the Crusades and the question of Occitan identity

Mostly complementing her major publications The World of the Troubadours collaborative editions of the songs of the troubadour Marcabru of the epic fragment the Canso d'Antiocha and of the medieval Occitan tensos and partimens they provide either more detailed material than found its way into those works or developments from them Occitan literature and the Holy Land anticipates a new project on responses to the Crusades in Occitan and Old French lyrics

Reversing the predominant critical interpretation of La Cepp de and the Th or mes this study claims that literary contexts and avatars act as a point of entry into devotion The book reads La Cepp de from the inside out asking principal question How does the literary initiate an exploration of the theological Focusing on the ways in which the Th or mes transform literature into a potential instrument of salvation the text looks at La Cepp de's adaptation of different Renaissance lyric types Modulation of the formal and thematic traits of lyric subgenres such as the blason the baiser the pastoral and pastourelle as well as the emblem allow La Cepp de to develop and exploit literature as a contemplative framework The goals in taking this approach are to emphasize La Cepp de's originality in terms of representing the Christian body and spiritually erotic imagery This methodology also highlights La Cepp de's use of lyric subgenre as a means of unifying the first and second volumes of the Th or mes In its final chapter the book compares and contrasts La Cepp de's appropriation of lyric forms with that of other Renaissance poets such as Lazare de Selve Jean de Sponde and Marguerite de Navarre The work concludes by arguing that the contribution of La Cepp de's text lies in the singularity of its narrative structure its poetic mission and its depiction of Christ s humanity Literary structure becomes meditative structure as lyric form becomes a vehicle toward redemption La Revue de Paris ,1900 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
