

A romantic scene between a man and a woman in traditional Chinese clothing. The man, on the left, has long black hair in a high bun with gold ornaments and wears a light blue robe over a white shirt. The woman, on the right, has her hair in a braid with a floral headpiece and wears a pink robe. They are looking at each other intimately. The scene is framed by a large blue scroll with gold end caps. The background features a light blue wall with floral patterns and a flying bird on the right.

high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon s legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon     Everlasting Love John G.
