Good Teaching for Children with SEND Alison Silby, Ann Callander, 2025-05-14 Trainee and beginning primary school teachers must learn how to support children to overcome or reduce barriers to learning They need to build confidence in their use of teaching approaches that support Good Teaching for SEND Good Teaching for All This practical textbook presents evidenced based Adaptive Teaching strategies foundation knowledge and classroom approaches to support the learning of all children Each chapter links to a Teachers Standard and includes adaptable exemplar teaching activities based on what we know works in classrooms This is a core text for primary teacher training supporting new teachers to ensure their classrooms are truly inclusive for all children including those with SEND

Developing Readers in the Middle Years Elaine Millard,1994 Are there developmental stages in reading response Can these be promoted or accelerated by classroom experience The debate about standards in reading has largely ignored such questions and focused on the methods used to introduce children to print in the early years of school Less attention has been given to ways of nurturing the habit once the first stages are past Elaine Millard explores how assumptions about what is pleasurable in reading set an agenda for the middle years which ignores crucial differences in children s reading habits particularly those related to gender She argues that the more advanced reading skills of analysis evaluation and critical response can be introduced to children at this stage but that they require the support of a classroom context that encourages cooperation and which builds on shared habits of reading
