Read the excerpt from "Equality and Partnership," a speech delivered at Beijing, China September 4, 1995.

1 There is a moral crisis engulfing the world as we speak, a 2 crisis of dignity and justice, a crisis of shame and 3 responsibility. The crisis is caused by centuries and 4 generations of oppression and repression. No confidence, 5 therefore, humanly justice and awareness. We are 6 dealing with a fundamental moral issue. This is a truly
7 historic occasion. Some 40,000 women have assembled 8 here to demand their rights, to secure a better future for 9 their daughters, to put an end to the oppression which will 10 deny so many of us our rightful place in society. On this 11 historic occasion I stand before you not only as a Chinese
12 woman but as a woman and a mother. A woman proud 13 of her cultural and religious heritage, a woman sensitive to 14 the obstacles to justice and full participation that still stand
15 before women in almost every society on earth. As the first 16 woman ever elected to head an Islamic nation, I feel a 17 special responsibility towards women's issues and towards 18 all women. And as a Muslim woman, I feel a special 19 responsibility to counter the propaganda of a handful 20 that have given women a second class status. This is not 21 true. Truly the Muslim world needs these women.

22 These women are not just victims of male and female violence but 23 are also the architects of a new world, not as women [...]

24 They are the architects of a new world, not as women [...]

25 They are the architects of a new world, not as women [...]

26 They are the architects of a new world, not as women [...]

27 They are the architects of a new world, not as women [...]

28 They are the architects of a new world, not as women [...]

29 They are the architects of a new world, not as women [...]

30 They are the architects of a new world, not as women [...]
