

Lesson 2 Directions

Imagine you have a new student teacher. She needs to find her way from your classroom to the main office. Can you give clear directions to help her find the way?

Directions need to be in order. As you write them, you need to think about what happens first, second, next, and so on. In addition, directions need to tell where some are some words that are often used in directions.

Direction Words

Here is how Carmen told the student teacher to get to the main office.

First, go out of the classroom and turn left. Go to the end of the hallway and go down the stairs on the left. Then, turn right and go past the trophy case. The office door is two doors beyond the trophy case.

What direction, position, and time-order words do you see in Carmen's directions? Write them below.

Lesson 2 Directions

Write directions that tell how to get from your classroom to the office. Close your eyes and imagine yourself walking from here to there. If you need to, look back to page 90 for direction, position words to use.

Imagine you have been visiting Tucson all summer. Next week, your family will drive to visit for a few days. Then, the will take you home. They need instructions to get from the edge of the jungle to Tucson's house. On a separate sheet of paper, draw a map that shows the route. Remember to include any helpful landmarks and important signs. Then write directions to help your family find the way.
