... the British. When these were combined the British were often referred to as the "Redcoats" because they wore red uniforms. Performing this duty was a dangerous task. Many British soldiers were killed during this time.

... creating a conventional perception of religious learning, morality and other spiritual concepts, whereas education theory, more encouraging and supportive, like Rogers and like ourselves, the author has found paradox within them.

Check-Point: What characteristics does a successful leader exhibit? What are the traits of an effective manager?

ANSWER: This associated map shows greater snow cover in the south than in the north. This pattern is consistent with global climate change, which is warming the southern hemisphere more rapidly than the northern hemisphere.
