1.3 Open answer. Award two marks for a well-substantiated answer regarding the recycling process for paper ✓✓. Suggested answer:

Yes, I recycle paper products myself. Informal collectors are very visible and collect paper products every day. Big companies have Sappi bins on their premises, reminding people to recycle. In our classroom there are recycling bins for paper. We also move to a paper-free environment, as many textbooks are now available electronically.

No, more can be done. There should be a law forcing every citizen to recycle paper. People discard empty containers very easily into an ordinary bin. When driving around town, many papers can be seen lying around. South Africa is far behind when compared to recycling processes in other countries. (2)

Translating Evidence and Interpreting Testimony at a War Crimes Tribunal Ellen Elias-Bursac, 2015-02-17

How can defendants be tried if they cannot understand the charges being raised against them? Can a witness testify if the judges and attorneys cannot understand what the witness is saying? Can a judge decide whether to convict or acquit if she or he cannot read the documentary evidence? The very viability of international criminal prosecution and adjudication hinges on the massive amounts of translation and interpreting that are required in order to run these lengthy complex trials and the procedures for handling the demands facing language services. This book explores the dynamic courtroom interactions in the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in which witnesses testify through an interpreter about translations; attorneys argue through an interpreter about translations; and the interpreting and judges adjudicate on the interpreted testimony and translated evidence.

We Too Sing America Deepa Iyer, 2017-03-07. Powerful Iyer catalogues the toll that various forms of discrimination have taken and highlights the inspiring ways activists are fighting back. She is an ideal chronicler of this experience. The Washington Post: The nationally renowned racial justice advocate's illumination of the ongoing persecution of a range of American minorities. In the lead up to the recent presidential election, Donald Trump called for a complete ban on Muslims entering the United States, surveillance against mosques and a database for all Muslims living in the country, tapping into anti-immigrant, anti-Muslim hysteria to a degree little seen since the targeting of South Asian, Arab, Muslim and Sikh people in the wake of 9/11. In the American Book Award-winning We Too Sing America, nationally renowned activist Deepa Iyer shows that this is the latest in a series of recent racial flash points from the 2012 massacre at the Sikh gurdwara in Oak Creek, Wisconsin to the violent opposition to the Islamic Center in Murfreesboro, Tennessee and to the Park 51 Community Center in Lower Manhattan. Iyer asks whether hate crimes should be considered domestic terrorism and explores the role of the state in perpetuating racism through detentions, national registration programs, police profiling and constant surveillance. Reframing the discussion of race in America, she reaches into the complexities of the many cultures that make up South Asia. Publishers Weekly and provides ideas from the front lines of post-9/11 America.
