

Finding Something to Do

Story By: Judie Eberhardt

Jessie was so bored one summer day in June. She wanted something different to do. What can I do that would be fun but different she asked herself. She was tired of watching T.V., she read all her books, and her friends were on vacation. Suddenly, she saw the lawn mower sitting in the garage. Jessie noticed the lawn was tall and shaggy looking. "Mom," she yelled. "I think I will mow the lawn." Her mom ran into the garage and said, "Oh no you don't." "You're too young to mow the lawn." Jessie said, "I'm ten years old and know how to do it." "Besides, it would help Dad out, and he won't have to worry about it over the weekend."

Mom was very hesitant, but she decided to let Jessie give it a try. After all, she was home and would keep an eye on her. Jessie already knew how to start the lawn mower from watching her Dad. She was a real pro. She checked the gas to make sure it was full, had on her sneakers for safety, and even put on her gardening gloves to protect her hands. Mom watched from the kitchen window. Wow, she thought to herself. Jessie really does know how to mow the lawn. She was very careful around the flowers and trees. When she finished, she felt so good, but she was so hot. Mom brought her some ice tea and said, "You sure did a great job." "Dad will be very surprised."

Later that day, Dad came home and said to Jessie's mom, "You didn't have to mow the lawn." "I was going to do it on Saturday." "It looks great though." "Thanks." "I didn't mow it, Jessie did." "Wow, our little girl is growing up!" Dad told Jessie what a great job she did. "It was fun, and I will do it again next week," said Jessie. The neighbor next door came by and asked Jessie if she wanted to mow his lawn and make some money. "Sure!" said Jessie. Jessie began mowing their lawn, and then two other neighbors asked also. Jessie was now mowing lawns for three neighbors and making some money on her summer vacation. She was no longer bored! I won't have time to spend my money, she laughed to herself.

Blauman, Leslie Blauman, Jim Burke, 2014-04-24 This book explains what the standards say what they mean and how to teach them The book is organized by the Anchor Standards in the following categories Reading Literature Informational Text Foundational Reading Skills This is a departure from the 6 12 standards that we will have to consider in design format Writing Speaking and Listening Language Reading Across Multiple Texts in the Common Core Classroom Janice A. Dole, Brady E. Donaldson, Rebecca S. Donaldson, 2014-04-15 This teacher friendly resource addresses one of the most important critical reading skills in the Common Core State Standards reading across multiple texts As the world grows ever more complicated students more than ever need to become skillful at reading multiple sources comparing contrasting and integrating texts Responding specifically to Standards 7 and 9 this guide shows teachers how to work with students as they read think about critique and evaluate multiple texts including narrative and informational print graphic and video hard copy and online The authors provide strategies for helping students answer text dependent questions find evidence in a text and scan for information Model lessons developed and taught by the authors and their professional colleagues will be especially useful to teachers whether they are beginning or expanding their own teaching of multiple texts Reading Across Multiple Texts in the Common Core Classroom K 5 is the book for which elementary school literacy educators have been waiting for ever since the Common Core State Standards were released From the Foreword by Robert J Marzano CEO Marzano Research Laboratory These authors provide a refreshingly realistic look at what it could mean to read across texts Planning templates and examples illustrate the potential of CCSS to vastly improve students text based experiences The combination of an extended application of comprehension research and a clear understanding of classrooms make this book a must read for teachers Sharon Walpole professor School of Education University of Delaware The Chinese Short Story Patrick Hanan, 1973 During the centuries of its popularity early Chinese vernacular fiction was never adequately preserved or even documented The great popular appeal of the short stories saved them from oblivion but it was only in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries that they were first collected and published Mr Hanan's erudite study is the first thorough attempt to uncover the history of the Chinese short story Using a variety of techniques but principally that of stylistic analysis the author solves the fundamental problem of dating the stories in terms of periods He is able to place each story in one of three broad categories early ca 1250 1450 middle ca 1400 1575 and late ca 1550 1627 and to assign some of them to the earlier or later part of the time span In many cases he offers evidence of sources and influences place of origin and possible or probable authorship On the basis of the author's research it is possible to see in minutely researched detail how the short story developed in China what kind of men composed it its relationship to other kinds of literature and the main social preoccupations with which it deals The results of Mr Hanan's study are vitally important to all scholars of Chinese literature Historians and linguists will also find it valuable as a model of the innovative use of stylistic analysis Special Method in Geography for Third and Fourth Grades Charles Alexander McMurry,1897
