

Finding Something to Do

Story By: Judie Eberhardt

Jessie was so bored one summer day in June. She wanted something different to do. What can I do that would be fun but different she asked herself. She was tired of watching T.V., she read all her books, and her friends were on vacation. Suddenly, she saw the lawn mower sitting in the garage. Jessie noticed the lawn was tall and shaggy looking. "Mom," she yelled. "I think I will mow the lawn." Her mom ran into the garage and said, "Oh no you don't." "You're too young to mow the lawn." Jessie said, "I'm ten years old and know how to do it." "Besides, it would help Dad out, and he won't have to worry about it over the weekend."

Mom was very hesitant, but she decided to let Jessie give it a try. After all, she was home and would keep an eye on her. Jessie already knew how to start the lawn mower from watching her Dad. She was a real pro. She checked the gas to make sure it was full, had on her sneakers for safety, and even put on her gardening gloves to protect her hands. Mom watched from the kitchen window. Wow, she thought to herself. Jessie really does know how to mow the lawn. She was very careful around the flowers and trees. When she finished, she felt so good, but she was so hot. Mom brought her some ice tea and said, "You sure did a great job." "Dad will be very surprised."

Later that day, Dad came home and said to Jessie's mom, "You didn't have to mow the lawn." "I was going to do it on Saturday." "It looks great though." "Thanks." "I didn't mow it, Jessie did." "Wow, our little girl is growing up!" Dad told Jessie what a great job she did. "It was fun, and I will do it again next week," said Jessie. The neighbor next door came by and asked Jessie if she wanted to mow his lawn and make some money. "Sure!" said Jessie. Jessie began mowing their lawn, and then two other neighbors asked also. Jessie was now mowing lawns for three neighbors and making some money on her summer vacation. She was no longer bored! I won't have time to spend my money, she laughed to herself.

Reading Across Multiple Texts in the Common Core Classroom, K-5 Janice A. Dole, Brady E. Donaldson, Rebecca S. Donaldson, 2014-07 This teacher friendly resource addresses one of the most important critical reading skills in the Common Core State Standards reading across multiple texts. As the world grows ever more complicated students more than ever need to become skillful at reading multiple sources comparing, contrasting and integrating texts. Responding specifically to Standards 7 and 9 this guide shows teachers how to work with students as they read, think about, critique and evaluate multiple texts including narrative and informational print, graphic and video hard copy and online. The authors provide strategies for helping students answer text dependent questions, find evidence in a text and scan for information. Model lessons developed and taught by the authors and their professional colleagues will be especially useful to teachers whether they are beginning or expanding their own teaching of multiple texts.

Teachers World, 1895 Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading, writing, speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills. It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual, communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young. Elementary Students' Motivation to Read Linda B. Gambrell, 1996 Still Learning to Read Franki Sibberson, Karen Szymusiak, 2016 Foreword by Colby Sharp. In the decade since the first edition of Still Learning to Read was published, the prevalence of testing and the Common Core State Standards have changed what is expected of both teachers and students. The new edition of Still Learning to Read focuses on the needs of students in grades 3-6 in all aspects of reading workshop, including reading workshop, read aloud, classroom design, digital tools, fiction, nonfiction and close reading. The book stays true to its original beliefs of slowing down and knowing our readers, but it also takes into account the sense of urgency that changing times and standards impose on classrooms. This edition examines current trends in literacy, includes a new section on intentional instructional planning and provides expanded examples of mini lessons and routines that promote deeper thinking about learning. It also includes a brand new chapter on scaffolding for reading nonfiction and showcases the authors latest thinking on close reading and text complexity. Online videos provide glimpses into classrooms as students make book choices, work in small groups and discuss their reading notebooks. Expanded and updated book lists, recommendations for digital tools, lesson cycles and sections specifically written for school leaders round out this foundational resource.
