The Dial, 1959 Pornography, Sex, and Feminism Alan Soble, 2002-03 In this unabashed defense of pornography from a utilitarian hedonist perspective philosopher Alan Soble strongly rebuts both feminist and conservative critics Soble demonstrates that neither conservative nor feminist critics of pornography show much acquaintance with the genre they criticize This suggests that purely political motives underlie their critiques instead of reasoned objective arguments based on thorough empirical research Soble also faults critics of pornography for their failure of empathy they refuse to see pornographic images from the various perspectives of their viewers In approaching these images literally detractors promulgate the worst possible interpretation of pornography Further they do not do justice to the social and psychological research about pornography and its purported harms Conservatives and feminists manufacture their case against pornography and its consumers based on oversimplified interpretations of the images and a poor understanding of scientific studies This sardonic and well reasoned critique of feminist and conservative moral outrage over pornography is sure to be controversial Dial ,1959 A Clenched Fist Peter Weston Wood,2007-02 Does boxing teach anything besides how to club someone into submission Can it transcend its sordid reputation and instill love compassion and honor in America s most troubled youth In this raw yet uplifting memoir about amateur boxing Wood tells of his begrudging return to a world he thought he left behind He steps back into the mud of boxing coaching two troubled teens who dream as he once did of becoming Golden Gloves champions His compelling story moves far beyond the grunt and sweat of the local gym It explores the classrooms of a suburban high school and digs through the remains of unhappy childhoods It s a story about how boxing is a way out and how it cleanses the soul This book brings the subculture of amateur boxing up close and weaves a powerful story of beating demons battling for glory and gaining redemption Prize Stories ,1947 Art of Spanking Milo Manara,Jean-Pierre Enard,1993-11 A classic tome where the heroine is introduced to the spicy pleasures of being administered and administering spankings Manara beautifully and abundantly illustrates the tongue in ahem cheek text Luxuriously presented trade paper back in sepia and black colors and with flaps Family in Transition Arlene S. Skolnick,Jerome H. Skolnick,1997 This best selling reader on families and intimate relationships identifies the most current trends and places them in historical context The reader balances cutting edge scholarship with perennial favorites Many selections support the authors claim of a triple revolution transforming contemporary family life the move to a postindustrial service and information economy a life course revolution brought about by reduced mortality and fertility and psychological changes rooted in rising educational levels Anyone looking for a collection of classic and contemporary readings on the sociology of the family
