Architecture ,1992 Overtourism and Cruise Tourism in Emerging Destinations on the Arabian Peninsula

Manuela Gutberlet,2023-07-31 Cruise tourism is one of the fastest growing sectors worldwide This book is the first of its kind to provide in depth insights into the emergence of mega cruise tourism in destinations on the Arabian Peninsula and its impacts on local communities their spaces cultures identities and tourist experiences It offers a micro sociological analysis calling for holistic participatory mindful approaches and to rethink current exploitative tourism planning and development It assumes a high political social and economic importance within globalization It draws on a long term field study in an under researched region in Asia that developed large scale tourism recently to diversify the economy The book provides insights on the destination development from a state of continuous growth to a sudden fall in tourism activities due to a sudden shock caused by the global health pandemic and its resilience It explores the sociocultural economic and spatial challenges faced in international tourism development and its power relations analysed from different perspectives and within time It analyses time space compression overtourism urban tourism nature based tourism enclavization social capital imaginaries Cultural Ecosystem Services slow tourism as well as just tourism The book provides an innovative contribution to the planning and development of tourism destinations communities and their spaces in which tourism operates in a fast pace It will be of interest to academics undergraduate and postgraduate students in the field of tourism and hospitality management geography sociology anthropology urban planning and environmental sciences Moreover the book will be useful for practitioners and policymakers around the globe as well as all those interested in the fast emergence and the impacts of mega cruise tourism Under Construction: Logics of Urbanism in the Gulf Region Steffen Wippel,Katrin Bromber,Birgit Krawietz,2016-02-17 Interdisciplinary in approach this volume explores and deciphers the symbolic value and iconicity of the built environment in the Arab Gulf Region its aesthetics language and performative characteristics Bringing together a range of studies by artists curators and scholars it demonstrates how Dubai appeared at least until the financial crisis to be leading the construction race and has already completed a large number of its landmark architecture and strategic facilities In contrast cities like the Qatari capital Doha still appear to be heavily under construction and in countries like the Sultanate of Oman ultra luxury tourism projects were started only recently While the construction of artificial islands theme parks and prestige sport facilities has attracted considerable attention much less is known about the region s widespread implementation of innovative infrastructure such as global container ports free zones inter island causeways and metro lines This volume argues that these endeavours are not simply part of a strategy to prepare for the post oil era for future economic survival and prosperity in the Lower Gulf region but that they are also aiming to strengthen identitarian patterns and specific national brands In doing so they exhibit similar yet remarkably diverse modes of engaging with certain global trends and present questionably distinct ideas for putting themselves on the global map Each country aims to grab attention with regard to the world wide flow of goods and capital and thus provide its own citizens with a socially acceptable trajectory for the future By doing that the countries in the Gulf are articulating a new semiotic and paradigm of urban development For the first time this volume maps these trends in their relation to architecture and infrastructure in particular by treating them as semiotics in their own right It suggests that recent developments in this region of the world not only represen
