2014 Life Orientation Grade 11 Question Paper:

The Routledge Handbook of European Penology Sonja Snacken, Gaëtan Cliquennois, Ioan Durnescu, Diete Humblet, Elena Larrauri, 2025-12-05 European penology the multidisciplinary scientific study of punishment carried out on the European continent is booming. This Handbook aims to offer an overview of the current state of the art and cutting edge penological research in Europe covering all the regions north south east west and Europe's institutional organisations the Council of Europe and the European Union including research that may hitherto not have been published in English. The Handbook also reflects on whether there is anything distinctive or typically not necessarily exclusively European in the ways penology is applied in Europe. This challenge is taken up by a team of 5 editors and 60 authors from 21 different countries reflecting a balance of gender early and promising career and established researchers. After the editors' Introduction the book is organised into three parts: Part I European Penology: Scientific Developments discusses theoretical and methodological developments and important issues within comparative penology; Part II European Penality: Developments in Penal Practices focuses on transversal European developments, particular groups of offenders and specific forms of punishment; Part III offers a reflection on penal policies and practices in Europe as seen from abroad. The Handbook offers graduate and postgraduate students, postgraduate researchers, academics and other research users such as governments and NGOs critical and up to date reflections on some of the most prominent discussions on penology in Europe today. Chapter 17 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license.
