Claudio Ferreira-Costa,2023-09-18 For fifty years the philosophy of language has been experiencing a stalemating conflict between the old descriptive and internalist orthodoxy advocated by philosophers such as Frege Russell Wittgenstein Strawson and Searle and the new causal referential and externalist orthodoxy mainly endorsed by Kripke Putnam and Kaplan Although the latter is dominant among specialists the former retains a discomforting intuitive plausibility The ultimate goal of this book is to overcome the stalemate by means of a non naive return to the old descriptivist internalist orthodoxy Concerning proper names this means introducing second order description rules capable of systemizing descriptions of the proper name s cluster to provide us with the right changeable conditions of satisfaction for its application Such rules can explain how a proper name can become a rigid designator while remaining descriptive disarming Kripke s and Donnellan s main objections In the last chapter this new perspective is extended to indexicals in a discussion of David Kaplan s and John Perry s views and of general terms in a discussion of Hilary Putnam s externalism
