Closing the Education Achievement Gaps for African American Males Theodore S. Ransaw, Richard Majors, 2016-04-01 Closing the Education Achievement Gaps for African American Males is a research based tool to improve the schooling experience of African American males Editors Theodore S Ransaw and Richard Majors draw together a collection of writings that provide much needed engagement with issues of gender and identity for black males as well as those of culture media and technology in the context of education The distinguished and expert contributors whose work comprises this volume include an achievement gap specialist for males of color two psychologists a math teacher an electrical engineer a former school principal a social worker and a former human rights commissioner From black male learning styles to STEM this book shows that issues pertaining to educational outcomes for black males are nuanced and complex but not unsolvable With its combination of fresh new approaches to closing achievement gaps and up to date views on trends this volume is an invaluable resource on vital contemporary social and educational issues that aims to improve learning equity and access for African American males

The Vocabulary Book Michael F. Graves, 2016-07-29 This new second edition includes two entirely new chapters on selecting vocabulary words for study and vocabulary instruction for English Language Learners In addition every chapter has been substantially updated to incorporate discussion of next generation standards Incorporating the newest research in vocabulary acquisition into the four part model of vocabulary instruction that made the first edition a bestseller this edition emphasizes vocabulary as an important tool in meeting the needs of increasingly diverse students K 12 It also includes new instructional approaches to teaching vocabulary that have been developed and classroom tested since the release of the first edition

Read, Write, Lead Regie Routman, 2014-06-17 Literacy is a skill for all time for all people It is an integral part of our lives whether we are students or adult professionals Giving all educators the breadth of knowledge and practical tools that help students strengthen their literacy skills is the focus of Read Write Lead Drawing on her experience as a mentor teacher reading specialist instructional coach and staff developer author Regie Routman offers time tested advice on how to develop a schoolwide learning culture that leads to more effective reading and writing across the curriculum She explains how every school including yours can Implement instructional practices that lead to better engagement and achievement in reading and writing for all students from kindergarten through high school including second language and struggling learners Build Professional Literacy Communities of educators working together to create sustainable school change through professional learning based on shared beliefs Reduce the need for intervention through daily practices that ensure success even for our most vulnerable learners Embed the language of productive feedback in responsive instruction conferences and observations in order to accelerate learning for students teachers and leaders In their own voices teachers principals literacy specialists and students offer real life examples of changes that led to dramatic improvement in literacy skills and perhaps just as important increased joy in teaching and learning Scattered throughout the book are Quick Wins ideas and actions that can yield positive affirming results while tackling the tough work of long term change     Congressional Record United States. Superior Court,2016     The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits,2019-09-10 This book flips your world upside down Daniel Markovits argues that meritocracy isn't a virtuous efficient system that rewards the best and brightest Instead it rewards middle class families who can afford huge investments in their children's education Frightening eye opening stuff The Times Books of the Year Even in the midst of runaway economic inequality and dangerous social division it remains an axiom of modern life that meritocracy reigns supreme and promises to open opportunity to all The idea that reward should follow ability and effort is so entrenched in our psyche that even as society divides itself at almost every turn all sides can be heard repeating meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we think we are But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that The Meritocracy Trap prosecutes with rare force comprehensive research and devastating persuasion Daniel Markovits a law professor trained in philosophy and economics is better placed than most to puncture one of the dominant ideas of our age Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within as well as how we can take the first steps towards a world that might afford us both prosperity and dignity     Vanity Fair ,1966     Daily Trade Bulletin ,1888
