A Bridge To Love English Edition

Nicholas Watson, Jacqueline Jenkins

A Bridge To Love English Edition:

Franz Werfel: The Faith of an Exile Lionel Steiman, 2010-10-30 Franz Werfel was born in Prague in 1890 and died in Beverly Hills in 1945 a popular and artistic success in Europe and America Despite his Jewish birth and upbringing he was attracted to Christianity at any early age and although he never formally converted he celebrated his own vision of it in his entire life s work The original of that peculiar faith and the response it engendered in Werfel s work as he lived through the horrific end of Jewish life in Europe are treated here Werfel was not a systematic thinker and while his writing contains much that is philosophical and theological his eclecticism and idiosyncrasy render any attempt to trace the specific origins of his thought or its relation to the work of contemporary philosophers and theologians highly problematic Thus this work is neither biography nor intellectual history in the strict sense it goes beyond melding the concerns of both genres into a thoughtful comprehensive portrait of faith at work Of interest to historians of the twentieth century as well as to students of that intriguing zone that lies between faith and art but is neither or both The Law of Love and Love as a Law, Or, Christian Ethics Mark Hopkins, 1872 Catalogue of (printed) music. Music. Accessions, pt.[1]-94 British museum dept. of pr. books, 1884 The Writings of Julian of Norwich Nicholas Watson, Jacqueline Jenkins, 2006 Julian of Norwich ca 1343 ca 1416 a contemporary of Geoffrey Chaucer William Langland and John Wyclif is the earliest woman writer of English we know about Although she described herself as a simple creature unlettered Julian is now widely recognized as one of the great speculative theologians of the Middle Ages whose thinking about God as love has made a permanent contribution to the tradition of Christian belief Despite her recent popularity however Julian is usually read only in translation and often in extracts rather than as a whole This book presents a much needed new edition of Julian s writings in Middle English one that makes possible the serious reading and study of her thought not just for students and scholars of Middle English but also for those with little or no previous experience with the language Separate texts of both Julian s works A Vision Showed to a Devout Woman and A Revelation of Love with modern punctuation and paragraphing and partly regularized spelling A second analytic edition of A Vision printed underneath the text of A Revelation to show what was left out changed or added as Julian expanded the earlier work into the later one Facing page explanatory notes with translations of difficult words and phrases cross references to other parts of the text and citations of biblical and other sources A thoroughly accessible introduction to Julian s life and writings An appendix of medieval and early modern records relating to Julian and her writings An analytic bibliography of editions translations scholarly studies and other works The most distinctive feature of this volume is the editors approach to the manuscripts Middle English editions habitually retain original spellings of their base manuscript intact and only emend that manuscript when its readings make no sense At once more interventionist and more speculative this edition synthesizes readings from all the surviving manuscripts with careful justification of each choice involved in this process For readers who are not concerned with textual matters the result will be a more readable and satisfying text For Middle English scholars the edition is intended both as a hypothesis and as a challenge to the assumptions the field brings to the business of editing British Books ,1908 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1895 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library,Jim Emmett,1981 The New Laws of Love Marie Bergström,2021-12-21 Online dating has become a widespread feature of modern social life In less than two decades seeking partners through commercial intermediaries went from being a marginal and stigmatized practice to being a common activity How can we explain this rapid change and what does it tell us about the changing nature of love and sexuality In contrast to those who praise online dating as a democratization of love and those who condemn it as a commodification of intimacy this book tells a different story about how and why online dating became big The key to understanding the growing prevalence of digital dating lies in what Marie Bergström calls the privatization of intimacy Online dating takes courtship from the public to the private sphere and makes it a domestic and individual practice Unlike courtship in traditional settings such as school work and gatherings of family and friends online dating makes a clear distinction between social and sexual sociability and renders dating much more discrete Apparently banal this privatizing feature is fundamental for understanding both the success and the nature of digital matchmaking Bergström also sheds light on the persisting inequalities of intimate life showing that online dating is neither free nor fair it has its winners and losers and it differs significantly according to gender age and social class Drawing on a wide range of empirical material this book challenges what we think we know about online dating and gives us a new understanding of who why and how people go online to seek sex and love A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone,1871 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1897 The Nation ,1871 American Chemical Journal ,1892 The Stage Year Book ,1950 The British Friend ,1892 Creation Set Free Sigurd Bergmann,2005-11-23 In view of the destruction of the sources of life ecology is no longer a marginal issue In Creation Set Free Sigurd Bergmann creatively rethinks the discipline of theology in light of the ecological crisis He is concerned throughout to see the cosmos as something involved in redemption rather a mere stage for the human salvific drama After critically and constructively summarizing previous initiatives toward an ecological theology Bergmann opens up an extraordinary dialogue between these initiatives and church father Gregory of Nazianzus Through the neglected topics of sociality motion suffering and the Spirit the author brings to light Gregory's thought on the liberation of creation Finally Bergmann connects ecological issues and patristic tradition with contemporary liberation theology The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1896 Publishers Weekly ,1978 The Illustrated London News ,1878 The Publishers Weekly ,1893 The Bookseller ,1911
