Age Good Food Guide 2006:

The Age Good Food Guide 2006 Roslyn Grundy, Sally Lewis, 2005 The Age Good Food Guide 2006 contains all the information you need to choose the perfect restaurant The guide has become a must have if you are a food lover or just looking for something a bit different What's new what's hot or what's not A dining experience for every occasion

Creativity Without Law Kate Darling, Aaron Perzanowski, 2017-02-28 Behind the scenes of the many artists and innovators flourishing beyond the bounds of intellectual property laws Intellectual property law or IP law is based on certain assumptions about creative behavior The case for regulation assumes that creators have a fundamental legal right to prevent copying and without this right they will under invest in new work But this premise fails to fully capture the reality of creative production It ignores the range of powerful non economic motivations that compel creativity and it overlooks the capacity of creative industries for self governance and innovative social and market responses to appropriation This book reveals the on the ground practices of a range of creators and innovators In doing so it challenges intellectual property orthodoxy by showing that incentives for creative production often exist in the absence of or in disregard for formal legal protections Instead these communities rely on evolving social norms and market responses sensitive to their particular cultural competitive and technological circumstances to ensure creative incentives From tattoo artists to medical researchers Nigerian filmmakers to roller derby players the communities illustrated in this book demonstrate that creativity can thrive without legal incentives and perhaps more strikingly that some creative communities prefer and thrive in environments defined by self regulation rather than legal rules Beyond their value as descriptions of specific industries and communities the accounts collected here help to ground debates over IP policy in the empirical realities of the creative process Their parallels and divergences also highlight the value of rules that are sensitive to the unique mix of conditions and motivations of particular industries and communities rather than the monoculture of uniform regulation of the current IP system

Making Dinner Roblyn Rawlins, David Livert, 2019-01-10 With a vast selection of foods and thousands of recipes to choose from how do home cooks in America decide what to cook and what does their cooking mean to them Answering this question Making Dinner is an empirical study of home cooking in the United States Drawing on a combination of research methods which includes in depth interviews with over 50 cooks and cooking journals documenting over 300 home cooked dinners Roblyn Rawlins and David Livert explore how American home cooks think and feel about themselves food and cooking Their findings reveal distinct types of cook the family first cook the traditional cook and the keen cook and demonstrate how personal identities family relationships ideologies of gender and parenthood and structural constraints all influence what ends up on the plate Rawlins and Livert reveal research that fills the data gap on practices of home cooking in everyday life This is an important contribution to fields such as food studies health and nutrition sociology social psychology anthropology gender studies and American studies Periodicals in Print, Australia, New Zealand & the South Pacific ,1996

Wine Enthusiast ,2010-08 Who's who in Australia ,2007 Fantasy Island Larry Elliott,Dan Atkinson,2007 We live in a country fantasising about its ability to run up debts seemingly without end to enjoy high paid employment for which it is not qualified to project military power that it does not possess and in general to assume in defiance of the evidence a superior economic and political position in relation to most of the rest of the world Then there is the apparent conviction that limitless growth can co exist with environmental protection that the over borrowed and abundantly staffed state machine is actually being courageously pruned even while its payroll rises and finally that the just around the corner radiant future is one in which will work in the creative economy Welcome to Fantasy Island He may be the most spectacular election winner in modern British political history but Blair leaves behind him a seedy dreamworld mired in debt and bankruptcy drifting into a crisis of employment and employability hallucinating into existence a diplomatic and military role that it cannot possibly afford It s time to take stock of the future he and Brown have mapped out for us while there s still time to do something about it Exploring Community Festivals and Events Allan Jepson,Alan Clarke,2014-10-17 The development of the festival and event industry has seen large scale growth and extensive government support as a result of objectives to enhance and project the image of place and leverage positive sponsorship and regeneration opportunities As we move deeper into austerity measures prompted by economic recession community festivals and events as a sacred or profane time of celebration can be considered even more important than ever before This book for the first time explores the role and importance of community culture and its impact through festivals and events Split into two distinct sections the first introduces key themes and concepts contextualises local traditions and culture and investigates how festivals and events can act as a catalyst for tourism and create a sense of community It then questions the social and political nature of festivals and community events through examining their ownership The second section focuses on communities themselves seeking to examine and discuss key emerging themes in community event studies such as the role of diaspora imagined communities pride and identity history producing and consuming space and place authenticity and multi ethnic communities Examples are drawn from Portugal the Dominican Republic the USA Malaysia Malta Finland and Australia making this book truly international This significant volume will be valuable reading for students and academics across the fields of Event Tourism and Hospitality studies as well as other social science disciplines Applied Physiology, Nutrition, and Metabolism ,2007
