Agir Pour Ne Pas Mourir:

Queer Realms of Memory Siham Bouamer, Denis M Provencher, Ryan K. Schroth, 2025-11-05 Pierre Nora's concept lieux de moins realms of memory has become arguably the most significant academic point of reference when discussing processes of nation building and their interconnectedness with history and collective memory. Although his theory has acquired popularity well beyond its application to the French context his influential seven volume series 1984-92 is not without its own shortcomings and failures which have only occasionally been exposed over the last two decades. It is not until the recent publication of Postcolonial Realms of Memory Liverpool University Press 2020 that we see an expansive critique of Nora's own selective memory. Our project seeks to continue challenging Nora's approach and France's national narrative by providing space to examine queer lives cultures and memories. We contend however that those related to queer experiences within France's collective memory have almost never been addressed. Queer Realms of Memory is the first book length study to question Nora's lack of engagement with queer French and Francophone cultures and histories.

Everyday Resistance Bruno Frère, Marc Jacquemain, 2019-10-04 This book studies those who in various domains of life are resisting the increasingly harsh day to day pressures of late capitalism centering mainly on French examples. Far from the global euphoria of the sixties and seventies everyday people are trying to loosen the grip of injustice in very concrete ways people experiencing homelessness try to occupy and live in empty buildings collectives of small farmers and consumers avoid long and costly commercial supply chains to defend their common interests students and teachers organize to prevent the expulsion of undocumented migrants and activists in the free software movement fight for the common ownership of software and of the Internet. Through civil disobedience in the midst of daily life people are trying to resist work against and change laws that protect the interests of firms and corporations considered socially or ecologically unfair.

Une fabrique de servitude Jean-François Payette, Roger Payette, 2015-09-10T11:35:00-04:00 L'aspiration à l'indépendance nationale est d'abord une question politique. Toutefois les obstacles qui se dressent sur la route de l'affranchissement d'un peuple logent souvent dans la dimension culturelle qui devient un ali nomotore de la subordination nationale par le divorce qu'elle opérera par exemple entre la parole et l'action chez la collectivité. Pour découvrir les principales composantes de cet ali nomotore culturel l'art et particulièrement l'crit est un formidable révélateur. En analysant trois œuvres qui bouscules majeures savoir Un homme et son père de Claude Henri Grignon, Les Belles sœurs de Michel Tremblay et La Petite Vie de Claude Meunier, les auteurs passent en revue les éléments socioculturels qui façonnent la définition que les Québécois se donnent d'eux-mêmes comme collectivité et qui transforment leur culture nationale pourtant si façonnée en une fabrique de servitude. Après avoir analysé les sources de cet assujettissement et ses conséquences douloureuses, les auteurs proposent une démarche d'affranchissement afin que le peuple prenne sa vie collective en main en s'appropriant un agir qui lui permettra de se rebeller dans le bonheur authentique de collaborer à la construction d'un monde commun.
