Economic Commission for Africa,2014 For millions of Africans growth is yet to translate into jobs and better living conditions Africa s largely commodity driven growth has not been matched by the much needed structural change that can lead to economic transformation employment and reduced poverty Market failures necessitate industrial policy interventions Yet in the absence of the right processes and institutions good industrial policies will fail Indeed weak institutions and poor policy design have hindered industrial policy This report gives a framework for getting the policy process right to foster industrialization It uses 11 country case studies to assess the critical ingredients for spurring industrialization innovative institutions effective processes and flexible mechanisms and structural transformation Title 47 Telecommunication Parts 80-End (Revised as of October 1, 2013) Office of The Federal Register, Enhanced by IntraWEB, LLC,2013-10 47

CFR Telecommunication Solar, Wind and Land Troy A. Rule, 2014-09-19 The global demand for clean renewable energy has rapidly expanded in recent years and will likely continue to escalate in the decades to come Wind and solar energy systems often require large quantities of land and airspace so their growing presence is generating a diverse array of new and challenging land use conflicts Wind turbines can create noise disrupt views or radar systems and threaten bird populations Solar energy projects can cause glare effects impact pristine wilderness areas and deplete water resources Developers must successfully navigate through these and myriad other land use conflicts to complete any renewable energy project Policymakers are increasingly confronted with disputes over these issues and are searching for rules to effectively govern them Tailoring innovative policies to address the unique conflicts that arise in the context of renewable energy development is crucial to ensuring that the law facilitates rather than impedes the continued growth of this important industry This book describes and analyses the property and land use policy questions that most commonly arise in renewable energy development Although it focuses primarily on issues that have arisen within the United States the book's discussions of international policy differences and critiques of existing approaches make it a valuable resource for anyone exploring these issues in a professional setting anywhere in the world

China's Bilateral Relations with Its Principal Oil Suppliers George G. Eberling, 2017-10-23 This book examines China's bilateral relations with its established suppliers of crude petroleum and on occasion petroleum gas products including liquefied natural gas LNG based on a five dimensional framework political diplomatic relations economic trade relations military security relations cultural relations and petroleum energy relations A five dimensional approach is comprehensive in nature and offers a complete understanding of China's complex relationships rather than looking solely on more typical perspectives like bilateral trade security relationships or energy ties More often than not social science literature focuses on one or more aspects of China's bilateral relations which does not provide a complete picture of the complex nature of its interstate ties This book endeavors to bridge this gap and look more substantially at China's bilateral relationships with energy petroleum relations being the key aspect linking each one of them The specific bilateral relationships examined are China's relations with Angola Brazil Republic of the Congo Iran Iraq Kazakhstan Kuwait Oman Russia Saudi Arabia South Sudan Sudan United Arab Emirates and Venezuela These countries matter because their crude petroleum and petroleum gas product exports account for over 50 percent of China's annual oil consumption

Food Security Governance Nora McKeon, 2014-12-17 This book fills a gap in the literature by setting food security in the context of evolving global food governance Today's food system generates hunger alongside of food waste burgeoning health problems massive greenhouse gas emissions Applying food system analysis to review how the international community has addressed food issues since World War II this book proceeds to explain how actors link up in corporate global food chains and in the local food systems that feed most of the world's population It unpacks relevant paradigms from productivism to food sovereignty and highlights the significance of adopting a rights based approach to solving food problems The author describes how communities around the world are protecting their access to resources and building better ways of producing and accessing food and discusses the reformed Committee on World Food Security a uniquely inclusive global policy forum and how it could be supportive of efforts from the base The book concludes by identifying terrains on which work is needed to adapt the practice of the democratic public sphere and accountable governance to a global dimension and extend its authority to the world of markets and corporations This book will be of interest to students of food security global governance development studies and critical security studies in general
