Ame Church Order Of Service:

Public Worship and Public Work Christian Batalden Scharen, 2004 Description In a time of increasing cultural pluralism and vast religious restructuring in the United States Christian social ethics must take account of how values and commitments shape Christian communities In Public Worship and Public Work Christian Scharen examines theological claims about the relationship of worship and ethics by means of ethnographic study of the life worship and work of three vibrant congregations Public Worship and Public Work moves beyond two caricatures of the relationship between worship and social ethics Rather than resolute portrayals of the Church as a reflection of its culture and context and causal accounts of the Church's liturgy forming a Christian witness over and against culture this book lifts up congregational identity as an area of dynamic interaction between worship social ethics and culture Chapters in Part One are Liturgy and Social Ethics Characterizing a Debate and Sociologizing the Debate Identity Ritual and Public Commitment Chapters in Part Two Three Case Studies in Atlanta's Old Downtown are People Living Church The Catholic Shrine of the Immaculate Conception Jesus Saves Big Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church and The Church at Work Central Presbyterian Church Part Three concludes with The World in the Church in the World Order of Service in the A.M.E. as a leader among those new denominations made the educational moral political and social needs of black Americans a constant concern Through its newspapers and magazines including the A M E Church Review and the Christian Recorder the church produced a steady flow of news articles editorials and scholarly essays that articulated its positions nurtured intellectual debate and contributed to the ongoing struggle for racial equality Drawing together writings from the Civil War era to the eve of World War II this book is organized thematically Each chapter presents a selection of A M E sources on a particular topic civil rights education black theology African missions and emigrationism women s identities and socialism and the social gospel Among the writers represented are such notable figures as W E B Du Bois Henry McNeal Turner Ida B Wells Amanda Berry Smith and Benjamin Tucker Tanner An invaluable new resource for researchers and students this book demonstrates both the variety and vitality of A M E social and political thought The Editors Stephen W Angell is associate professor of religion at Florida A M University and author of Henry McNeal Turner and African American Religion in the South Anthony B Pinn is associate professor of religious studies at Macalester College He is the author of Why Lord Suffering and Evil in Black Theology and Varieties of African American Religious Experience and editor of Making the Gospel Plain The Writings of Bishop Reverdy C Ransom Methodist Union Catalog, A-BJ Kenneth E.
