

AP English literature: Poetry analysis

See page 2 for the "Evidence and Commentary" trait.

Thesis

The thesis may be more than one sentence, provided the sentences are in close proximity. The thesis may be anywhere within the response. For a thesis to be defensible, the sources must include at least minimal evidence that could be used to support that thesis; however, the student need not cite that evidence to earn the thesis point. The thesis may establish a line of reasoning that structures the essay, but it needn't do so to earn the thesis point. A thesis that meets the criteria can be awarded the point whether or not the rest of the response successfully supports that line of reasoning.

0 points

- For any of the following:
 - There is no defensible thesis.
 - The intended thesis only restates the prompt.
 - The intended thesis provides a summary of the issue with no apparent or coherent claim.
 - There is a thesis, but it does not respond to that prompt.
- Responses that do not earn this point:
 - Only restate the prompt.
 - Make a generalized comment about the poem that doesn't respond to the prompt.
 - Describe the poem or features of the poem rather than making a claim that requires a defense.

1 point

- Responds to the prompt with a thesis that presents a defensible interpretation of the selected work.
- Responses that earn this point:
 - Provide a defensible interpretation in response to the prompt.

Sophistication

This point should be awarded only if the sophistication of thought or complex understanding is part of the student's argument, not merely a phrase or reference.

- Does not meet the criteria for 1 point.
- Responses that do not earn this point:
 - Attempt to contextualize their interpretation, but such attempts consist predominantly of sweeping generalizations.
 - Only hint at or suggest other possible interpretations.
 - Make a single statement about how an interpretation of the poem comments on something thematic without consistently maintaining that thematic interpretation.
 - Oversimplify complexities in the poem.
 - Use complicated or complex sentences or language that is ineffective because it does not enhance the student's argument.
- Demonstrates sophistication of thought and/or develops a complex literary argument.
- Responses that earn this point may demonstrate a sophistication of thought or develop a complex literary argument by doing any of the following:
 1. Identifying and exploring complexities or tensions within the poem.
 2. Illuminating the student's interpretation by situating it within a broader context.
 3. Accounting for alternative interpretations of the poem.
 4. Employing a style that is consistently vivid and persuasive.
