

AP Literature: Prose Fiction Analysis Essay Study Guide

What You'll See

This section presents a passage of prose, which may come from a short story or novel. The prompt will ask you to analyze how the author uses specific literary devices (such as characterization, setting, or point of view) to develop a theme or convey meaning.

What Is Expected

- Thesis: Craft a clear thesis that explains how the author uses literary devices to convey a theme or meaning.
- Evidence: Support your thesis with specific examples from the passage. Use quoted, descriptions, and literary techniques that the author uses to support your analysis.
- Commentary/Analysis: Provide insightful commentary on the significance of the evidence. Explain how the literary devices in the passage contribute to the larger theme or meaning of the text.
- Line of Reasoning: Maintain a clear line of reasoning throughout your essay. Each body paragraph should logically connect to the thesis and build upon the previous one, creating a cohesive argument.
- Organization: As with Q1, your essay should be clearly organized with an introduction that presents the thesis, body paragraphs that explore different literary techniques, and a conclusion that ties the analysis together.
