Anxious Joburg Nicky Falkof, Cobus van Staden, 2020-10-01 An interdisciplinary account of the life of Johannesburg South Africa's global south city Anxious Joburg focuses on Johannesburg the largest and wealthiest city in South Africa as a case study for the contemporary global South city Global South cities are often characterised as sites of contradiction and difference that produce a range of feelings around anxiety This is often imagined in terms of the global North's anxieties about the South migration crime terrorism disease and environmental crisis Anxious Joburg invites readers to consider an intimate perspective of living inside such a city How does it feel to live in the metropolis of Johannesburg what are the conditions intersections affects and experiences that mark the contemporary urban Scholars visual artists and storytellers all look at unexamined aspects of Johannesburg life From peripheral settlements to the inner city to the affluent northern suburbs from precarious migrants and domestic workers to upwardly mobile young women and fearful elites Anxious Joburg presents an absorbing engagement with this frustrating dangerous seductive city It offers a rigorous critical approach to Johannesburg revealing the way in which anxiety is a vital structuring principle of contemporary life The approach is strongly interdisciplinary with contributions from media studies anthropology religious studies urban geography migration studies and psychology It will appeal to students and teachers as well as to academic researchers concerned with Johannesburg South Africa cities and the global South The mix of approaches will also draw a non academic audience The Individual in African History, 2020-03-31 This volume investigates the development of biographical study in African history and historiography Consisting of 10 case studies it is preceded by an introductory prologue which deals with the relationship between historiography and different forms of biographical study in the context of Western history writing but especially African historical and anthropological studies The first three case studies deal with the methodological insights of biographical studies for African history This is followed by three case studies dealing with personas living through fundamental societal transitions and four case studies focusing on the discursive dimensions of biographical subjects including religion cosmology and ideology Countries or regions discussed include South Africa Zambia Gold Coast Cameroon Tanganyika Congo Kinshasa and the Central African Republic in colonial times Contributors are Lindie Koorts Elena Moore Iva Pe a Paul Glen Grant Jacqueline de Vries Duncan Money Morgan Robinson Eve Wong Klaas van Walraven Erik Kennes

Research in African Literatures, 2003 Vol 1 spring 1970 include A Bibliography of American doctoral dissertations on

African literature compiled by Nancy J Schmidt National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa. National Youth Development Agency, 2016 The Boy Pat Hopkins, Heather Dugmore, 1999 This critical reappraisal of the siege of Mafikeng provides a fresh examination of the role of Major General Baden Powell in the conflict during which approximately 2000 people died in action or expired from disease or starvation Frontline ,1980 Collected Seminar Papers on the Societies of Southern Africa in the 19th and 20th Centuries University of London. Institute of Commonwealth Studies, 1980 A Dictionary of South African English Jean Branford, William Branford, 1991 This scholarly reference work is also an entertaining guide to the English spoken in South Africa It includes forms of English that are peculiarly South African as well as words adopted from Afrikaans African and Khoisan languages and from local Malay Indian and Jewish communities The fourth edition reflects the beginning of a new era in South Africa and contains quotations from a wide variety of sources including Steve Biko and Nelson Mandela among many others Liquor and Labor in Southern Africa J. S. Crush, Jonathan Crush, Charles H. Ambler, 1992 When the youth of Soweto in open insurrection in June 1976 smashed and burned eighteen state owned liquor outlets and a similar number of bottle stores they were not following the pattern of alcohol looting which often accompanies rioting They were attacking symbols of state oppression and their anger stemmed partly from deep and complicated struggles over control of the access of blacks to alcohol in South Africa From many published sources official and unofficial the social and economic importance of alcohol in black communities is glaringly evident The subject has however received little systematic scholarly attention to date Liquor and labor in southern Africa breaks new ground in locating the study of alcohol use within the framework of southern African historiography Resistance and Transformation Michael Cross, 1992 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,1997 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Kronos ,1993 Martyrs and Fanatics Peter Dreyer, 1980 A coming of age memoir about one man's miscues and false starts as he enters the world after college and attempts to answer the timeless question of who he is while contemplating what role music love work drugs money and books will play in his life Provided by publisher The Post-apartheid Constitutions Penelope Andrews, Stephen Ellmann, 2001 In a book which offers a unique range of perspectives on the development of South Africa's Interim and final Constitutions scholars practising lawyers members of the judiciary and the Human Rights Commission and political leaders illuminate the many issues of process substance and context presented by the Constitutions Essays on process make clear the challenges and the triumphs of South Africa's constitutional rebirth The authors examine such questions as the extent of popular involvement in South Africa's exercise in constitution writing the impact of political force human transformation and reasoned persuasion on the agreements that were reached and the Constitutional Court's extraordinary role in assessing the negotiators efforts Contributions on the substance of the Constitution address both its human rights provisions and issues of governmental structure and institutional context The articles on rights attest to the breadth of the new rights protections

with essays on free speech socio economic rights and their application to private actors women s rights traditional authority cultural rights and the rights of non citizens Chapters on structure and context reflect how important the institutions through which a government operates are to the actual implementation of the Constitution s aspirations These wide ranging pieces look at three of the newly created structures of South African government the federal aspects of the Constitutions the Constitutional Court and the Human Rights Commission and at the process of change in the criminal justice system a particularly important institution carried over from an old order

Rights-based Litigation, Urban Governance and Social Justice in South Africa Marius Pieterse, 2017-09-08 Rights based Litigation Urban Governance and Social Justice in South Africa considers the overlap between legal and everyday struggles for social and spatial justice in the particular context of Johannesburg South Africa Drawing from literature across disciplines of law urban geography and urban planning as well as from reported case law concerning the invocation of constitutional rights in Johannesburg and other South African cities the book critically examines whether and to what extent the invocation of legal rights before South African courts have contributed to the advancement of social justice in the city It considers the impact of the legal assertion of different constituent aspects of the so called right to the city on the many people simultaneously performing the right the governance structures responsible for enabling and facilitating its enjoyment and thirdly the physical place in which it is performed Drawing broad conclusions on the utility of rights based litigation for the achievement of social change and spatial justice this book will be of interest to students and scholars of South Africa constitutional law human rights law regulatory law sociology of rights studies of law and society urban studies urban geography governance studies and development studies
