How to write a good college application essay?

March 30, 2016 • 3 min read • original

After the high school years, it is just normal that students already have been exposed to various writing tasks. High school life is not purely about fun and excitement. It is also the time when students are given many tasks to accomplish and one of those is essay writing. This is in preparation of a more serious life that would be the college years. This is because before a person can enter college, an application essay must be written and accomplished first. It is apart from the series of examinations that should be passed.

There are many different ways on how a person specifically a student can be able to write the best college application essay. Such kinds of papers are needed to get accepted on a college or a university. Considering the fact that many students find it hard to write, getting tips from the veterans or from the web can surely be helpful. The veterans can be the parents, older siblings, teachers and others. The web is such a great resource of almost any information and it can also have the best tips and ideas that students must learn. Below are some of the things that students should take note in writing.

Keep an essay short and simple

The first is to make sure that the paper is concise. Writing a college essay must not be something like a novel. Instead, it should be straight to the point so as for the person who will check it will easily understand what you are talking about. The common or the standard minimum number of words required by most college applications would be 250 words. If it is way beyond that, the person who will check it might get bored and would just throw away your paper.

Be honest

The next tip about college essay writing is to always write with honesty. Honesty is always the best policy. The saying likewise applies to writing college applications. It is not advisable to write unreal achievements or skills. No matter what, the school that you are applying to will still figure it out.

How to Write a Winning College Application Essay Michael James Mason, 1991 Seniors in high school start feeling stressed at the mere thought of writing the college application essay They well know the role this crucial document plays in getting into their university of choice What they may not know is that there is a right way and a wrong way to writing the essay I've noticed some recurrent bad habits that have hurt otherwise good essays and I have added mention of them throughout the book says Michael James Mason author of How to Write a Winning College Application Essay A student doesn't have to be a star scholar or a superhero to write a great application essay They just have to show on paper that they know some things about themselves and that life has meaning and perspective In How to Write a Winning College Application Essay Mason teaches students how to put their best image on paper while letting the essay speak from their heart about what life means to them Since the publication of the first two editions of his practical manual thousands of students across the nation have used his techniques in the process of writing their personal statements for college and graduate school. Thousands of good students have been accepted into colleges of their choice because their essays were honest, moving, and sensitive. Their essays revealed their values, insights, and spirit, says Mason. About the Author: Michael James Mason has helped thousands of students at his College Essay Workshops and in previous editions of this book. In writing the third edition to this popular book, he looked to the experiences of real students and admissions officials, the people who write and read the essays in college applications. He lives in Marina Del Rey, California.

Conning Harvard Julie Zauzmer, Xi Yu, 2013-09-03. In 2011, a 24-year-old man pled guilty to falsifying his application to Harvard University, bilking the world's most prestigious university out of more than 45,000 in prizes and scholarships. Using forged SAT scores, transcripts, and letters of recommendation, Adam Wheeler outsmarted Harvard's admissions office and then went even further. Once accepted into the Ivy League, he kept lying, cheating, and succeeding, winning thousands of dollars in prizes and grants. But then he shot too far. During his senior year, Wheeler applied for Rhodes and Fulbright scholarships, a gamble that finally exposed his extensive tangle of lies. Alerted that he was under suspicion, Wheeler fled Harvard but did not stop. He successfully filed more fraudulent applications at top-tier schools across the country until some vigilant admissions officers, Massachusetts police, and even his own parents forced him off his computer and into court. As reporters for The Harvard Crimson, Julie Zauzmer and Xi Yu covered the case from the moment the news of Wheeler's indictment broke. In the course of their reporting, they interviewed dozens of friends, roommates, teachers, and advisors who knew Wheeler at the many phases of his suspect academic career. Their fascinating account reveals how one serial scammer took on the competitive world of the Ivy League and almost won.
