Disturbing Argument Catherine Palczewski, 2015-01-30 This edited volume represents the best of the scholarship presented at the 18th National Communication Association American Forensic Association Conference on Argumentation This biennial conference brings together a lively group of argumentation scholars from a range of disciplinary approaches and a variety of countries Disturbing Argument contains selected works that speak both to the disturbing prevalence of violence in the contemporary world and to the potential of argument itself to disturb the very relations of power that enable that violence Scholars essays analyze a range of argument forms including body and visual argument interpersonal and group argument argument in electoral politics public argument argument in social protest scientific and technical argument and argument and debate pedagogy Contributors study argument using a range of methodological approaches from social scientifically informed studies of interpersonal group and political argument to humanistic examinations of argument theory political discourse and social protest to creatively informed considerations of argument practices that truly disturb the boundaries of what we consider argument Agreement in Argumentation Francesca Santulli,Chiara Degano,2022-11-29 This book explores the construction of agreement in the argumentative process aiming to investigate how the activation of shared knowledge values and beliefs leads to the creation of a common ground between the speaker and the audience in the pursuit of persuasion In the first part of the book the authors examine agreement from a historical and theoretical perspective setting in relation major ancient and contemporary approaches to argumentation with special regard for the notions of ethos objects of agreement starting points and topoi all with a focus on their deployment in discourse This is complemented with a compendium of linguistic resources that can be exploited for the discursive construction of agreement offering a principled selection of structures across different levels of language description The second part of the book is devoted to the investigation of actual uses of agreement in a choice of institutional genres within the domain of the US presidential elections the Presidential Announcement the TV debate and the Inaugural Address Due to their political relevance and cultural salience these genres provide an ideal interface for observing the interplay of discursive and argumentative components against the backdrop of a shared cultural heritage rich with intertextual references The application of the theoretical framework developed in the first part of the book to the analysis of real political discourse carried out in the second is the distinguishing feature of this volume making it of interest to linguists and argumentation scholars as well as to political scientists and communicators

Reasonableness and Effectiveness in Argumentative Discourse Frans H. van Eemeren,2015-08-27 This volume presents 50 contributions on the themes of reasonableness and effectiveness and their connections which are central issues in argumentation theory It discusses van Eemeren's views on the study of argumentation the approach to argumentation adopted in pragma dialectics pragma dialectical perspectives on the dialectical and pragmatic dimensions of argumentative discourse the notion of strategic maneuvering the pragma dialectical method of analyzing argumentative discourse the treatment of fallacies as violations of rules for critical discussion pragma dialectical views on context the role of logic verbal indicators of argumentative moves and argument schemes and the process of writing and rewriting argumentative texts The pragma dialectical quantitative approach to empirical research on argumentative discourse is illustrated by reporting on selected illustrative experimental studies as well as qualitative studies of historical cases

Environmental Communication and Community Tarla Rai Peterson,Hanna Ljunggren Bergeå,Andrea M. Feldpausch-Parker,Kaisa Raitio,2016-04-28 As society has become increasingly aware of environmental issues the challenge of structuring public participation opportunities that strengthen democracy while promoting more sustainable communities has become crucial for many natural resource agencies industries interest groups and publics The processes of negotiating between the often disparate values held by these diverse groups and formulating and implementing policies that enable people to fulfil goals associated with these values can strengthen communities as well as tear them apart This book provides a critical examination of the role communication plays in social transition through both construction and destruction of community The authors examine the processes and practices put in play when people who may or may not have previously seen themselves as interconnected communicate with each other often in situations where they are competing for the same resources Drawing upon a diverse selection of case studies on the American Asian and European continents the chapters chart a range of approaches to environmental communication including symbolic construction modes of organising and agonistic politics of communication This volume will be of great interest to researchers teachers and practitioners of environmental communication environmental conflict community development and natural resource management Crucial Concepts in Argumentation Theory F. H. van Eemeren,2001
