

What Is Bullying?

Well not all students be conscious with the definition of this word because some of them are blessed with good luck that they never witness school or any type of bullying. A bullying is an action that done by a group of students to demonstrate their feelings. Now days ,It is a common phenomenon in Malaysia. Bullying is one of the main reasons for the massive school murders. Because this activity may lead to the fatal, dramatic consequences, a bullying is one of the most popular issue that discussed among the people. Bullying can occur in any situations where ever we are. Most of the time bullying takes place at school, college, university and even in workplace.

A person can disturb when physically, mentally or sexually be bullied.

There is also cyberbullying which is a common problem that faced by each and every person. A lot of people asking what is it ? Cyberbullying is a type of bullying via information and communications technology, that is, bullying through text messages, emails, phone calls internet chatrooms and social networking websites. A survey carried out on internet safety found that one-third of teenagers have had mean, embarrassing or threatening things said about them online. A majority of young people 81 percent think that online bullying is easier to handle than face-to-face bullying.

Only one-tenth of victims inform a parent or trusted adult of the abuse. We also can get to know that someone is being cyberbullied or not with recognize them some signs. Firstly, the victim may become withdrawn from family and friends. He or she may avoid using the computer or become nervous upon receiving a text message. Another sign is a change in behavior such as unexplained anger or depression, especially after going online.

Persistent bullying may have a number of effects on an individual, and in the environment where bullying occurs. Kids who are bullied can experience negative physical, school, and mental health issues. Kids who are bullied are more likely to experience depression and anxiety. Thus it will increased feelings of sadness and loneliness, changes in sleep and eating patterns, and loss of interest in activities they used to enjoy. Everlasting bullying induce the kid to lost interest in study and cause her to get low grades and make her or him to decrease academic achievement.

There is a strong link between bullying and suicide, as suggested by recent bullying-related suicides in the America and other c

Futuristic and Linguistic Perspectives on Teaching Writing to Second Language Students Hancı-Azizoglu, Eda Başak, Kavaklı, Nurdan, 2020-12-11 The aptitude to write well is increasingly becoming a vital element that students need to succeed in college and their future careers. Students must be equipped with competent writing skills as colleges and jobs base the acceptance of students and workers on the quality of their writing. This situation captures the complexity of the fact that writing represents higher intellectual skills and leads to a higher rate of selection. Therefore, it is imperative that best strategies for teaching writing to speakers of other languages are imparted to provide insights to teachers who can better prepare their students for future accomplishments. Futuristic and Linguistic Perspectives on Teaching Writing to Second Language Students examines the theoretical and practical implications that should be put in place for second language writers and offers critical futuristic and linguistic perspectives on teaching writing to speakers of other languages. Highlighting such topics as EFL/ESL composition, digital storytelling, and forming identity, this book is ideal for second language teachers and writing instructors as well as academicians, professionals, researchers, and students working in the field of language and linguistics.

Shermis, Joshua Wilson, 2024-06-27 The Routledge International Handbook of Automated Essay Evaluation (AEE) is a definitive guide at the intersection of automation, artificial intelligence, and education. This volume encapsulates the ongoing advancement of AEE, reflecting its application in both large scale and classroom-based assessments to support teaching and learning endeavors. It presents a comprehensive overview of AEE's current applications, including its extension into reading, speech, mathematics, and writing research, modern automated feedback systems, critical issues in automated evaluation such as psychometrics, fairness, bias, transparency, and validity, and the technological innovations that fuel current and future developments in this field. As AEE approaches a tipping point of global implementation, this Handbook stands as an essential resource advocating for the conscientious adoption of AEE tools to enhance educational practices ethically. The Handbook will benefit readers by equipping them with the knowledge to thoughtfully integrate AEE, thereby enriching educational assessment, teaching, and learning worldwide. Aimed at researchers, educators, AEE developers, and policymakers, the Handbook is poised not only to chart the current landscape but also to stimulate scholarly discourse, define and inform best practices, and propel and guide future innovations.
