John Venn and the Clapham Sect Michael Hennell, 1958 John Venn and the Clapham Sect, by Michael Hennell
Michael Hennell, 1958 The World, The Flesh and the Devil Andrew Sharp, 2016-10-24 New Zealanders know Samuel Marsden as the founder of the CMS missions that brought Christianity and perhaps sheep to New Zealand. Australians know him as the flogging parson who established large landholdings and was dismissed from his position as magistrate for exceeding his jurisdiction. English readers know of Marsden for his key role in the history of missions and empire. In this major biography spanning research and the subject's life across England, New South Wales and New Zealand, Andrew Sharp tells the story of Marsden's life from the inside. Sharp focuses on revealing to modern readers the powerful evangelical lens through which Marsden understood the world. By diving deeply into key moments, the voyage out, the disputes with Macquarie, the founding of missions, Sharp gets us to reimagine the world as Marsden saw it, always under threat from the Prince of Darkness, in need of a bold reprover of vice, a world written in the words of the King James Bible. Andrew Sharp takes us back into the nineteenth-century world and an evangelical mind to reveal the past as truly a foreign country. African Initiative and Inspiration in the East African Revival Daewon Moon, 2022-09-12 The East African Revival is a fascinating historical example of the significant role indigenous agency can play in creating a new Christian spirituality. African revivalists initiated the spread of the movement, employing creative practices such as public testimony and fellowship meetings to sustain the effects of conversion experiences. Daewon Moon integrates theological and sociological analyses of conversion with interviews and personal narratives that express insiders' perspectives. As active agents in the multiethnic and multicultural movement, African revivalists articulate through their words and changed lives what it means to be saved.

Excerpt: William Wilberforce (24 August 1759 – 29 July 1833) was a British politician, a philanthropist and a leader of the movement to abolish the slave trade. A native of Kingston upon Hull, Yorkshire, he began his political career in 1780, eventually becoming the independent Member of Parliament for Yorkshire. In 1784–1812, in 1785 he underwent a conversion experience and became an evangelical Christian, resulting in major changes to his lifestyle and a lifelong concern for reform. In 1787 he came into contact with Thomas Clarkson and a group of anti-slave trade activists, including Granville Sharp, Hannah More and Charles Middleton. They persuaded Wilberforce to take on the cause of abolition, and he soon became one of the leading English abolitionists. He headed the parliamentary campaign against the British slave trade for twenty-six years until the passage of the Slave Trade Act 1807. Wilberforce was convinced of the importance of religion morality and education He championed causes and campaigns such as the Society for Suppression of Vice British missionary work in India the creation of a free colony in Sierra Leone the foundation of the Church Mission Society and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals His underlying conservatism led him to support politically and socially repressive legislation and resulted in criticism that he was ignoring injustices at home while campaigning for the enslaved abroad In later years Wilberforce supported the campaign for the complete The Trend of Economic Thinking F.A.
