A Dictionary Of Maqiao:

A Dictionary of Maqiao Shaogong Han, 2003 A fictionalized account of the author's experiences growing up in a small village in rural China during the Cultural Revolution The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Remapping the Past Howard Yuen Fung Choy, 2008 This study investigates how writers of Deng Xiaoping's China undermined the grand narrative of official history by rewriting the past It showcases fictions of history by eleven Chinese Muslim and Tibetan authors in terms of spatial schemes of fictional historiography

Global Elements in Chinese Literature Sihe Chen, 2022-11-28 How has modern Chinese literature emerged from the collision of domestic social upheaval foreign inspiration and sparks of creative genius during the past century Sihe Chen explores this question from a global perspective analysing how Chinese authors assimilated Western literary movements to create new forms of expression adapted to a society in rapid transformation The author then examines these global influences in the works of selected contemporary Chinese novelists and poets He shows that the problems these writers confront are common to all peoples and that Chinese literature expresses not only the story of China but also that of humanity A Novel Approach to China Gengsong Gao, 2022-01-03 This book explores Chinese novelists' distinctive contributions to the China debate in terms of the key issues of Chinese language power dynamics and Confucian tradition As China is rising Chinese scholars and policymakers are debating heatedly over China's past present and future Who are the major debaters How do they analyze China's problems and figure out solutions What are the main achievements and weaknesses of the Chinese intellectual debate and discourse Chinese novelists also get involved in the China debate However their voices are rarely heard This book argues that by dramatizing the diversities of ordinary social actors everyday languages active discursive practices and enchanted local traditions Chinese novelists do not merely illustrate the dominant liberal the New Left and the New Confucian ideologies but enrich the China debate and provide a novel approach to our understanding of modern China Leaving the World to Enter the World Mark Leenhouts, 2005 Leaving the World to Enter the World focuses on the fictional and theoretical writings of Han Shaogong one of the most striking voices in contemporary Chinese literature Han played a central role in the root seeking trend that dominated the literary scene of the People's Republic of China in the mid 1980s His work has won him acclaim from a wide range of readers in Chinese and other languages a highlight being the 1996 novel Dictionary of Maqiao Critics have labeled Han the leader of a nationalist movement in search of a cultural identity Mark Leenhouts shows that Han's role is much more complex demonstrating that his literary practice is a highly individual creative continuation of Chinese tradition Han's personal style transcends the narrow boundaries of root seeking as it has been portrayed in literary histories and criticism to date This rectification of the one-sided image of Han Shaogong has profound implications for the significance of root seeking literature and for questions of tradition and modernity that have been among the most hotly debated topics in Chinese literary intellectual and political thought throughout the 20th century Leaving the World to Enter the World does justice to the individuality of the literary author by taking the intrinsic structure of the literary work as its starting point Leenhouts close textual analysis as intelligent and pragmatic as it is sensitive will help counterbalance the socio political orientation typical of much recent research By seeing Han Shaogong as a writer rather than a mouthpiece of historical forces this book opens up new perspectives for enjoying his literary mastery More Than Words Sierra Abbott,2023 Rain Taxi Review of Books ,2003 The Bulletin ,2004 Chinese Literature, Essays, Articles, Reviews ,2003 Book Review Index ,2004 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Zhuangzi and Modern Chinese Literature Jianmei Liu,2016 This is a powerful account of how the ruin and resurrection of Zhuangzi in modern China s literary history correspond to the rise and fall of modern Chinese individuality By examining the twentieth century reinterpretation and appropriation of Zhuangzi the author explores modern Chinese writers complicated relationship with tradition World Authors, 2000-2005 Jennifer Curry,2007 Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author s principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available
