Business Communication Betty Smith Johnson,Marsha L. Bayless,2002 Business Communication places the solid principles of communication into the context of today's demanding business world. The authors first equip their readers with a strong foundation in communication theory, oral communication, report writing, letter writing, and employment communication in beginning chapters. The remainder of the book integrates these traditional elements of business communication with technological, ethical, legal, multicultural, and international issues. The New Century Handbook Christine A. Hult, Thomas N. Huckin, 2008. The New Century Fourth Edition provides the answers today's students need as writers and researchers in an electronic age. This handbook shows students how to use new technologies to make appropriate rhetorical choices and to become more successful college writers in all of their courses while also providing clear, comprehensive coverage of handbook basics: writing grammar and usage, research, and documentation. Authors Christine Hult and Tom Huckin bring their expertise in research, computers, and writing grammar and linguistics and their extensive experience in teaching first-year composition to this remarkable handbook, a handbook that is accessible, flexible, comprehensive, and current and that speaks to students in today's language. More than any other handbook, The New Century addresses the primary concerns of composition students: how to understand and avoid plagiarism, how to write for courses beyond English, how to make correct grammatical and stylistic choices, and how to use technology to help them become better writers. Four in One Edward A. Dornan, Robert Dees, 1999. Student's Book of College English David Skwire, Harvey S. Wiener, 1996. Research Writing in Education and Psychology--from Planning to Publication Herbert John Klausmeier, 2001. Business Education Forum, 1996. Electronic Styles Xia Li, Nancy Crane, 1996. Demonstrates how to cite full-text information files, bibliographic databases, Internet-accessible electronic journals, e-mail, and other online resources.
