

APA (6th edition) Referencing Style

This referencing style sheet is to be used in conjunction with the Library's general Guide to Citing & Referencing. The information is based on the following manual from the American Psychological Association (APA):

American Psychological Association. (2010). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Washington, DC: Author.

For help with referencing items not covered in this guide:

You might like to refer to either the Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.) or the more compact version, Concise rules of APA style (6th ed.). Both manuals are available in the Library, on Level 3, at shelf mark 808.06615 AME. You can also access the following ebook via the Library Catalogue: The complete guide to referencing and avoiding plagiarism – this includes examples for APA and other styles.

Citation

The APA uses an author-date style of referencing with details entered in round brackets, for example:

The traditional approach to human cognition is over-simplified in assuming that processing is typically serial (Eysenck & Keane, 2010).

Treatment of multiple authors: when a work has two authors, cite both authors every time. When a work has three, four or five authors, cite all authors the first time a reference occurs. In subsequent citations, include only the surname of the first author followed by et al. See:

Kisangau, Lyanuu, Hosea, and Joseph (2007) found that ... [first time cited]

Kisangau et al. (2007) found that ... [subsequent citations]

When a work has six or more authors, cite only the surname of the first author followed by et al. and the year of publication for the first and subsequent citations.

Reference list

The reference list should contain full details of all the sources mentioned in your text, arranged alphabetically by surname of first author.

Reference examples

Below are some examples of the more common types of document you might want to reference. Each gives the APA 6th ed. format for the reference, followed by an example. Treatment of multiple authors within reference list: when authors number eight or more, include the first six authors' names then insert three ellipses and add the last author's name. (For example:

Kisangau, A., Lyanuu, B., Hosea, C., Joseph, D., Rogers, T., Tyree, C., ..., Humphreys, L. J. (2007). Psychology. Birmingham: ABC Press.

Guide to Information Sources in the Forensic Sciences Cynthia Holt, 2006 Thanks to the O J Simpson case not to mention the overwhelming success of the CSI franchise the general public is both aware of and curious about the world of forensics i.e. the investigation and establishment of facts or evidence in a court of law. The forensic sciences incorporate the application of principles and methods from a cadre of specialized scientific and technical disciplines to a vast array of criminal and civil legal questions. To this end Cynthia Holt has compiled a comprehensive bibliography of resources recommended to support research in the forensic sciences and its various subspecialties. Holt's introductory chapter clarifies the distinctions between the major forensic sciences specialties in addition it provides an overview of the hierarchy of various classification systems for the forensics literature. The bibliography itself is grouped by type of material e.g. journals, abstracts and indexes, books. Topics include ballistics, DNA analysis, etymology, expert witnessing and facial imaging reconstruction as well as contributions from academic fields such as anthropology, linguistics and engineering. Tools are primarily in English with a few non English titles included for reasons of significance. With a preface by Professor Moses S. Schanfield Chair of the Department of Forensic Sciences at George Washington University
