Curtains & Blinds

Introduction

You can instantly enhance or update a room by adding the right curtains or blinds. Adding a stylish pair of ready-made curtains can bring the whole room together and create a finished look. At the same time, blinds can be very eye-catching with more of a practical edge.

Choosing between the two is a balancing act between practicality and decorative appeal. We are on hand to provide useful advice on selecting the right furnishings for your windows. From choosing the best material to practical tips on measuring and hanging - we've got all the information you need to make the right choice for your room.

Deciding on the right curtains and blinds can make a dramatic difference to both the appearance and feel of a room. Do you want the window dressing to be the focus of the room by injecting colour? Or do you need the solution to be more neutral so you can change your furniture without having to replace the curtains? We've got a wide range of curtains, blinds and all the accessories you need to pull any window and any space.

Helping you choose what's right for your home

Before deciding on a particular type of curtain or blind it's worthwhile considering what you are trying to achieve in the room. Are you looking for practicality, a brand new style for your room or maybe a little of both?

Are you trying to keep a room cosy in the evenings or shading a child's bedroom from early morning sunshine? Deciding on your room's requirements from the beginning will help you make the right product choice - ensuring you get the most from your window dressing.

Looking at the appearance and size of your window is a great way to decide on the most suitable type of furnishing. Heavier curtains draw the eye, transforming a large window into a furnished feature. Lighter blinds can add subtlety, making a small window appear larger.

Curtains or Blinds - What's perfect for you?

Both types of window dressing offer a variety of different benefits and features. We've outlined the key advantages of each option below.
