Argumentative Research Papers:

Logical Argument in the Research Paper Russ Ward, 1997 Logical Argument in the Research Paper operate on the premise that collegiate level writing when cast in its most significant and sophisticated form is argumentative. Students are shown how writers examine a potential topic establish a stance upon that topic defend the stance avoid reasoning and ethical errors and in general say something meaningful about the topic. It also includes instruction about finding sources gathering information from them and correctly documenting them. However the emphasis remains on how effective writers evaluate sources think about the information they discover prepare a fair and informed argument rethink and revise the argument and finally present an argument in its completed form. Logical Argument in the Research Paper will help students learn some of the reasoning processes that all writers use when composing the academic argument

Writing the Modern Research Paper Robert Dees, 2003 Writing the Modern Research Paper is a practical and contemporary guide to writing research papers offering students advice on how to think critically throughout the research process. Designed as a complete reference, this book offers a step by step guide to research encouraging students to think carefully and critically about such issues as audience, topic and thesis as well as evaluating, integrating and citing sources appropriately. The text covers both informative and argumentative purposes for doing research including a full chapter on reasoning and evidence in argumentative research papers. Original and realistic student examples throughout show various approaches to the methods of planning and researching. This contemporary book offers full coverage of computer research technologies, extensive attention to the prewriting and planning stages of the assignment and pedagogy designed to encourage students to work collaboratively. There is also unparalleled coverage of the major disciplinary documentation forms: MLA, APA, CBE and Chicago. The book also features examples from modern research sources, Citation Indexes, the Internet not covered in other texts.

Re-Imagining Writing: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Phil Fitzsimmons, Johanna Pentikäinen, 2019-01-04. This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014. Across the globe the nature of writing in the twenty-first century is coming under increasing scrutiny as technology becomes an ever increasing component of everyday life and as measuring human output also takes hold in many disciplines. This book offers an alternative to these twin developments providing instead many alternatives. Coming from an international set of authors with different world views, paradigms and praxes the common theme of writing is explored with deep enthusiasm, interest in productivity and human capacity and that leads to a polyphonic and progressive inquiry to the subject matter. Each author's initial contribution suggest that writing as an object of study needs reimagining be it connected to learning, knowledge creation or artistic expression. Writing is a deeply person centred process and its open, transformative and multidimensional nature escaped definitions but can be understood through the metaphor of the gift.

Writing Argumentative Essays Nancy V. Wood, 2000-05.
