quit my old going no where and fast job and attend College so that I can get the degree of my choice and soon be doing what I have a real passion for as my way of making a good living I have been doing watch repair part time for about 4 years now I have learned a lot about the Jewelry business in that time and have met a lot of interesting people with some real awesome skills If I wanted to right now I could take it even farther and get into the Gold and Silver dealing trade or the Jewelry designing business or become a Watch Maker But I have my sights set on a different path There s money out there to be made we just have to go out and grab the bull by the horns Are you going to be a Zillionaire from doing watch repairs Absolutely not But the right person in the right situation with the right amount of passion and drive has potential to do very well in this and other businesses that this door can open up for them People with money fix their watches I meet interesting people everyday it s like I am a bartender without the drunks I have gotten other jobs for my other businesses from meeting people in this trade I have turned down job offers from several people who are business owners and seen a passion in me so much that they wanted to hire me as an employee Dexter Poin Mechanical and Quartz Watch Repair Mick Watters,2008
