Army New Study Guide 2013:

NL ARMS Netherlands Annual Review of Military Studies 2019 Wim Klinkert, Myriame Bollen, Marenne Jansen, Henk de Jong, Eric-Hans Kramer, Lisette Vos, 2019-07-16 This book has as its subject matter the academic education of officers and builds on the signing of the Bologna Declaration in 1999 by twenty nine European ministers for Education and Science who thereby agreed to coordinate higher education across Europe by for instance the implementation of the Bachelor s and Master s system In the meantime military academies have also introduced the BaMa system into their programs for officers education which marks a transition from the old days when officers education took place within a national military system under military command and was firmly grounded in principles traditions and needs as professed by the Ministries of Defence and the armed forces in particular So the Bologna Declaration can be seen as crucial leverage for the development of in house academic degree programs as a fundamental part of officers education With this volume the editors of NL ARMS 2019 strive to offer a platform to both academics and military and civilian practitioners as well as to combinations of these to reflect and share their thoughts on officers education before and after Bologna both in The Netherlands and abroad To this end controversies and challenges affecting various aspects and systems of officers education have been grouped into five themes Respectively the first four themes comprise institutional settings and change educational philosophy educational challenges and reflective practices and didactical solutions The fifth theme international perspectives provides insights into the strategic environments and challenges faced by sister academies as well as ways to further officers education across Europe such as offered by Erasmus programs All the editors of this year s volume are affiliated with the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda The Netherlands China's Military Power Roger Cliff, 2015-09-15 Once termed the world s largest military museum the Chinese military has made enormous progress over the past twenty years With skyrocketing military budgets and new technology China s tanks aircraft destroyers and missile capabilities are becoming comparable to those of the United States If these trends continue how powerful will the Chinese military be in the future Will its capabilities soon rival or surpass those of the United States The most comprehensive study of its kind this book provides a detailed assessment of China s military capabilities in 2000 and 2010 with projections for 2020 It is the first of its kind in outlining a rigorous theoretically and empirically grounded framework for assessing military capability based on not just weaponry but also doctrine training equipment and organizational structure This framework provides not only the most accurate assessment of China s military to date but an important new tool in the study of military history The new army list, by H.G. Hart [afterw.] Hart's army list. [Quarterly] Henry George Hart, 1876 The Official Study Guide for the CLEP Examinations, 1996 Faith, War, and Violence Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-09-08 Faith War and Violence analyzes the age old links between religion and violence perpetrated in the name of God and the role religion performs in politically infusing the state with romantic spiritualism The volume examines instances of this phenomenon from ancient Rome to the modern day it finds that religion inspired violence is not restricted to Abrahamic faiths or to one geographic region The fact that symbolically charged religious violence has destructive consequences is not lost on contributors to Faith War and Violence Among the subjects tackled are the ideological and religious foundations that inspired the founders of Al Qaeda and its role in the Arab Spring the long history of religious conflict in Ireland known as the Troubles Sikh extremism and the evolution of the Christian approach to war As the contributors demonstrate in Western societies the unity of religious fervor and warmongering stretches from Constantine s incorporation of Christian symbols into Roman army flags to slogans like Gott mit uns God is with us which appeared on the belt buckles of German soldiers in World War I In recent years George W Bush declared the war on terror a crusade and his speechwriter David Frum coined the religiously inspired term Axis of Evil to describe Iraq and other countries opposing the United States
