11.00 a.m. and 11.30 a.m. have shifted the focus of the service. The focus of the service is now on the local congregation and less about God's Word, a trend that is going against the representational focus of the gospels preceding the sermon on the Beatitudes.

In addition to shifting focus, there has also been a shift in the structure of the sermon preparation. In the traditional three-chapter preparation:

- a. At least one chapter is used for the focus of the day as a writing assignment because the other two are "research" assignments.
- b. The focus of the day is still the focus of the day as a writing assignment.
- c. The focus of the day is still the focus of the day as a writing assignment with the other two still research assignments.
