The End of Ownership Aaron Perzanowski, Jason Schultz, 2018-03-16 An argument for retaining the notion of personal property in the products we buy in the digital marketplace If you buy a book at the bookstore you own it You can take it home scribble in the margins put it on the shelf lend it to a friend sell it at a garage sale But is the same thing true for the ebooks or other digital goods you buy Retailers and copyright holders argue that you don't own those purchases you merely license them That means your ebook vendor can delete the book from your device without warning or explanation as Amazon deleted Orwell's 1984 from the Kindles of surprised readers several years ago These readers thought they owned their copies of 1984 Until it turned out they didn't In The End of Ownership Aaron Perzanowski and Jason Schultz explore how notions of ownership have shifted in the digital marketplace and make an argument for the benefits of personal property Of course ebooks cloud storage streaming and other digital goods offer users convenience and flexibility But Perzanowski and Schultz warn consumers should be aware of the tradeoffs involving user constraints permanence and privacy The rights of private property are clear but few people manage to read their end user agreements Perzanowski and Schultz argue that introducing aspects of private property and ownership into the digital marketplace would offer both legal and economic benefits But most important it would affirm our sense of self direction and autonomy If we own our purchases we are free to make whatever lawful use of them we please Technology need not constrain our freedom it can also empower us Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1988 Labor Relations Reference Manual, 1960 Moody's Bank and Finance Manual, 1989 Moody's Industrial Manual, 1997 Covering New York American regional stock exchanges international companies Directory of Minnesota Manufacturers and Guide Book to Minnesota Industry, 1970 The Prairie Farmer, 1961 Moody's Manual of Investments John Sherman Porter, 1949 American government securities 1928 53 in 5 annual vols v 1 Railroad securities 1952 53 Transportation v 2 Industrial securities v 3 Public utility securities v 4 Government securities 1928 54 v 5 Banks insurance companies investment trusts real estate finance and credit companies 1928 54
