

Chapter 1

1. Examine why Airstrip One operates on military time, as opposed to standard time, which Britain has historically used.
It sets a militaristic, grim, and bleak tone to the novel and contributes to placing the novel in an "other-worldly" setting, not Britain.
2. Discuss the message conveyed by the Big Brother posters hanging in apartment buildings. How would this message differ if the posters only hung in public places?
The Big Brother posters hanging in apartment buildings convey that Big Brother indeed is watching you at all times and privacy and freedom is nonexistent, even in one's residential space, in which privacy is expected. If the posters were hung only in public places, people would be reminded to conduct themselves appropriately outside, whereas they would be assured of their privacy and freedom inside their space of residence.
3. Examine the Party's three slogans: "War is peace. Freedom is slavery. Ignorance is strength." At this point in the novel, what do you think they mean?
  - 1) "War is peace": Waging wars against enemies helps defend the country and maintain peace at home.
  - 2) "Freedom is slavery": Freedom overburdens oneself and causes him or herself to be enslaved by the choices he or she has to make, thus simply following what the Party tells you to do is more reasonable.
  - 3) "Ignorance is strength": The population and regime is stronger when its citizens don't raise questions.

They are examples of "Doublethink" – contradictory terms exploited by the Party to manipulate citizens psychologically because they dare not to challenge the omnipotent Party's sayings.

4. Analyze why Winston is not certain of the exact date and how a lack of time-keeping reinforces the Party's manipulation of history.
There is no calendar or any tool to be used for reference of the exact date in Winston's flat. This absence of exact dates and presumably special dates (holidays, weekends, birthdays etc.) dulls the Oceanians' sensitivity to time, thereby impairing the citizens to effectively recall events because everyday seems like any other day without special occurrences; this, in turn, facilitates the Party's continuous manipulation of history because historical events are not recorded accurately with exact dates.
5. Generalize what the film Winston watched says about the Party, how it controls the populace, and how it views its citizens.
The film is propaganda, in which the Party is depicted as a powerful force that uses violence to solve problems. Also, the film demonstrates the Party's indifference of the dignity of human life coupled with judgmental views against Jews and Proles. The gory and obscene scenes depicted in the film are screened to the audience possibly to desensitize them to violence and normalize it for them to believe that violence is so deeply entrenched in society and necessary as to occur regularly.
6. Summarize Winston's feelings about O'Brien.
