It also suggests new topics which are emerging and new techniques to conduct such research topics and techniques that will be of benefit to researchers. The unique focus on the future of research methods in management the emergence of topics in contemporary management and sustainability research and practices such as sustainability and circular economy will set this volume apart. With coverage of new and emerging subjects in management studies such as sustainability zero carbon green market and circular economy and the international collaboration with contributors from all around the globe this major interdisciplinary reference volume will be of interest and great value to researchers academics and advanced students in the fields of business and management research and appropriate methodologies

Inspiring the Youth of America by Remington Registry J Alex Ficarra, 2015-11-24 Here at Remington many people are curious about this powerful book commonly known as Inspiring the Youth of America. Well as you may know our youth today in America are in dire need of mentorship and guidance. This book is a whole new step forward for all of us as a civilization. For many years and even today young Americans wander aimlessly in a pool of confusion. They end up in meaningless careers with no past no future and nothing to hope for. Undoubtedly the end result is misery and despair. The end result is poverty and surely a feeling of emptiness. Well we at Remington after interviewing over thirty thousand professionals were shockingly surprised to find that many successful professionals were disgusted with vanity publications. They were disappointed with the meaningless dribble of a phone booktype registry that possibly required a magnifying glass just to read. But surprisingly enough these professionals encouraged any use of their biography for humanitarian purposes. Undoubtedly mentorship for our youth fell into that category. So there it was born. Our proudest moment as publishers was laid out before us. But there was one big problem. All these people needed to be interviewed in depth and generic biographies certainly would not inspire. So with that we swallowed hard and our staff got to work. Yes it was and still is a grueling time consuming mission and undertaking. But in the end as you may witness as you read this book the content is quite spectacular and certainly worth the effort. We would also like to mention that the participants in this book also spent much time sending us information and encouraging us to make this book worthy of their efforts. Now it was up to us to uphold the dignity of these professionals and forge forward into a future where a student can explore his or her life with the ability to fulfill their own potentials. With that this book is presented to you today and we hope that you share in our dream to build a better America from where it really matters our youth

British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa Matthew P.

Llewellyn, Toby C. Rider, 2024-11-25 The transnational anti apartheid sport boycott of South Africa represented the most prominent extended and controversial anti racism campaign in the history of sport Spearheaded by prominent British religious and anti colonial figures and exiled South Africans emboldened by communist and Global South support and legitimised by supranational political bodies such as the United Nations the Organisation of African Unity and the Commonwealth the sport boycott helped propel anti apartheid out of relative obscurity and struck at the very heart of a cultural practice that served an explicitly ideological function in Afrikaner society Britain held a dichotomous even paradoxical role as both prosecutor and defender of white South Africa This book utilises sport as a critical lens for understanding the dynamics and dichotomies of British attitudes towards the apartheid regime Debates over whether to continue or to cut sporting links with apartheid South Africa proved bitterly divisive The considerable weight the subject carried and the degree to which it saturated British political and social discourse for four decades speaks to its impact and importance British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa represents the first archival based historical examination of Britain's sporting relations with South Africa throughout the apartheid era 1948-1994 Situating the analysis within the shifting multiracial and multicultural landscapes of postcolonial Britain and within global political cultural sporting and ideological debates the authors trace the origins and evolution of the transnational sport boycott and examine what inspired Britons to energise anti apartheid sport campaigns and in contrast what drove many others to vehemently oppose them at every turn
