Subversion, Resistance and Contestations, 2025-12-08 This volume is unique because it is the first full volume book to gather various contributions on the politics of names and naming in Zimbabwe. The premise of the book is that names are historical archives; thus, the chapters gathered herein attempt a chronological survey of the politics of names and naming from the colonial period to the post Mugabe era, popularly euphemised as the New Dispensation. This chronological study of names and naming was not meant to give a linear narrative of subversion, resistance, and contestation but to show that Zimbabwe does not have a monolithic history and that a chronological study of the names and naming traditions from the colonial period to the present will reveal various histories of Zimbabweans struggling against various hegemonies from a colonialist chronotope that threatened the onomastic erasure of black people to present political machinations and nomenclatural shenanigans that seek to disavow violent legacies. The multidisciplinary nature of this volume allowed for a more inclusive approach to the politics of names and naming in Zimbabwe. The various chapters constituting this volume were contributed by scholars from the fields of linguistics, literary studies, history, sociology, media, and music studies in Zimbabwe. Zimbabwe has consistently offered an interesting case study in various academic fields because of its unique history that includes a protracted liberation struggle and unrelenting post-independence crises. Thus, this volume offers a unique opportunity and archive for researchers interested in Zimbabwean history, politics, literature, and culture. Civil Society in Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu, Dion Nkomo, Kirk Helliker, 2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe's Matabeleland region, an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades. Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state-civil society dualist understanding, it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society, both analytically and empirically. This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social, political, and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post-colonial Zimbabwe and the region's troubled relations with the central state. Historically, it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region's resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice, given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy. Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice, not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines, including class and culture. The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore. The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society, politics, and democratisation across the African continent. Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra

Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender, religion, and migration within the context of post-independent Zimbabwe, with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religio cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

State Politics and Public Policy in Eastern Africa Gedion Onyango,2023-03-22 This book analyses major themes in twenty first century east African politics Predominantly authored by researchers and academics from the region it examines recent political developments public policy and governance across east and southern African countries The book advocates for a regionally focused comparative approach across Africa arguing that it provides a greater level of analysis than a complete continental study Adopting a multidisciplinary approach it covers numerous topics relating to politics public policy state and nation building in Africa Filling an important void in current literature the book will appeal to academics practitioners politicians and students of politics public policy and governance Chapter 16 and 20 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Maintaining Momentum to 2015? Howard White,2005 This report addresses the issue of what publicly supported programs and external assistance from the Bank and other agencies can do to accelerate attainment of targets such as reducing infant mortality by two thirds The evidence presented here relates to Bangladesh a country which has made spectacular progress but needs to maintain momentum in order to achieve its own poverty reduction goals The report addresses the following issues 1 What has happened to child health and nutrition outcomes and fertility in Bangladesh since 1990 Are the poor sharing in the progress which is being made 2 What have been the main determinants of MCH outcomes in Bangladesh over this period 3 Given these determinants what can be said about the impact of publicly and externally supported programs notably those of the World Bank and DFID to improve health and nutrition and 4 To the extent that interventions have brought about positive impacts have they done so in a cost effective manner

Marriage in Contemporary Zimbabwe Manase Kudzai Chiweshe,2024-12-19 Marriage has always occupied a profound cultural and social significance in Zimbabwean society but the forms and meanings attached to marriage have changed in recent decades Marriage in Contemporary Zimbabwe provides a social analysis of the institution highlighting how it is changing and evolving in the face of societal factors such as globalisation technology increased migration religious plurality and shifting cultural systems This book traces the evolution of Zimbabwean marriages from traditional pre colonial customs into the diverse modern practices seen today Drawing on rich qualitative insights from across urban rural and diaspora communities it explores the shift in traditional ascribed gender roles and the complex negotiations between persisting tradition and emerging modern influences These influences include women s empowerment partner choice and divorce It explores changes in childrearing and the dissolution of the extended family networks that once governed marriages and provided mutual support The book also explores broader societal transformations such as urban migration and westernisation and the impact of socioeconomic challenges such as HIV AIDS COVID 19 poverty and economic hardship Students and scholars of Zimbabwean history culture gender and the family will find this book essential for understanding the continuities and evolutions of the marriage institution in Zimbabwe

Social Media and Digital Dissidence in Zimbabwe Trust Matsilele, 2022-08-29 This book proposes a new theorisation when studying cyber dissidents in an African digital sphere It argues that social media dissidents are a recent development in a long lineage of dissidents in African societies Using Zimbabwe as a case study the study locates contemporary dissidents in the same family with other historical dissident figures found in African orature the Chimurenga wars through music poetry and other forms of expression The book argues against techno deterministic approaches to studying social media born digital dissidence in Africa It is aimed at scholars dedicated to studying social media movements in African contexts and the global south generally prompting them to re evaluate their earlier conclusions and adopt a more nuanced and contextspecific approach

Thinking in the World Jill Bennett, Mary Zournazi, 2019-12-26 Engaging with contemporary issues responsibly and creatively can become a very abstract activity We can sometimes find ourselves talking in terms of theories and philosophies which bear very little resemblance to how life is actually lived and experienced In Thinking in the World Jill Bennett and Mary Zournazi curate writings and conversations with some of the most influential thinkers in the world and ask them not just why we should engage with the world but also how we might do this Rather than simply thinking about the world the authors examine the ways in which we think in and with the world Whether it s how to be environmentally responsible how to think in film or how to dance with a non human the need to engage meaningfully in a lived way is at the forefront of this collection Thinking in the World showcases some of the most compelling arguments for a philosophy in action Including wholly original never before released material from Michel Serres Alphonso Lingis and Mieke Bal the different chapters in this book constitute dialogues and approachable essays as well as impassioned arguments for a particular way of approaching thinking in the world
