2015 Saps Post At Mpumalanga:

Civil Strife against Local Governance Sethulego Matebesi, 2017-03-13 Hardly a day goes by without South Africans going on a rampage over the provision of basic municipal services such as water electricity sanitation and other municipal obligations This book connects the critical issue of community protests to the equally precarious issue of political trust in local governance in South Africa by using comparative analysis of grassroots activism in predominantly black communities and predominantly white communities Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2016

Youth Revolution Kiara Nirghin, 2019-01-01 Youth Revolution is the inspirational story of how Kiara Nirghin a sixteen year old high school student from Johannesburg overcame severe health obstacles to win the grand prize at the 2016 International Google Science Fair for her unique and innovative solution to worldwide drought Having experienced bacterial meningitis undiagnosed bilharzia and severe weight loss Kiara was forced to postpone her school career for hospitalisation with a real chance of losing her hearing her sight and the use of her limbs Youth Revolution not only covers her journey from the hospital bed to the international stage as the winner of the science award but also looks at issues surrounding stagnant youth innovation while considering the dangers of lacking diversity in STEM science technology engineering and maths The book includes contributions from prominent women in science and education among them Malala Yousafzai the Pakistani activist for female education and the youngest Nobel Prize laureate Youth Revolution is a deeply human and truly inspirational real life story that will enthrall teenagers and adults alike proving that even ordinary teenagers can do extraordinary things Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization Contradictions of Democracy Nicholas Rush Smith, 2019-01-17 Despite being one of the world's most vibrant democracies police estimate between five and ten percent of the murders in South Africa result from vigilante violence This is puzzling given the country's celebrated transition to democracy and massive reform of the state's legal institutions Where most studies explain vigilantism as a response to state or civic failure in Contradictions of Democracy Nicholas Rush Smith illustrates that vigilantism is actually a response to the processes of democratic state formation In the context of densely networked neighborhoods vigilante citizens often interpret the technical success of legal institutions for instance the arrest and subsequent release of suspects on bail as failure and work to correct such perceived failures on their own Smith also shows that vigilantism provides a new lens through which to understand democratic state formation Among young men of color in some parts of South Africa fear of extra judicial police violence is common Amid such fear instead of the state seeming protective it can appear as something akin to a massive vigilante organization An insightful look into the high rates of vigilantism in South Africa and the general challenges of democratic state building Contradictions of Democracy explores fundamental questions about political order the rule of law and democratic citizenship Direct impact action strategy (DIAS) South African Police Service.
