Paul S. Minear,2003-09-04 From the Preface There are indeed few books in the Bible where the modern student does not need deft guidance if reading is to prove profitable In the case of the Book of Revelation that need becomes absolutely essential When the average student takes up this book almost without exception the going is tough the language baffling the sense of profit minimal This situation represents a curious reversal for in earlier centuries no other part of Scripture so greatly intrigued the imagination of Christendom or so greatly fascinated its painters and musicians The book at hand is designed to restore the Apocalypse to its rightful place in Christian thinking The title asserts a continuing conviction John as a prophet actually saw a new earth The ordinary ways of perceiving reality had been radically altered by his faith in Christ Even moderns in their traffic with the earth have accessible a greater diversity of visions than they suppose The ancient prophet may still have power to enable us to see a new earth Such at least is the premise that prompted the publication of this book

The Christ of the Apocalypse: Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation Msgr. A. Robert Nusca,2018-06-30 That the Apocalypse of John is a Revelation of Jesus Christ Rev 1 1 is a fact too often overlooked by interpreters of this last book of the Bible As Msgr A Robert Nusca s The Christ of the Apocalypse Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation proposes beyond predictions of earthquakes and falling stars St John articulates from start to finish a multifaceted and compelling portrait of Jesus Christ Nusca offers an exegetical reading of selected verses of the Book of Revelation incorporating rich spiritual and pastoral reflections The Christ of the Apocalypse above all affirms that St John s God and Christ centered symbolic universe offers our contemporary world a spiritual place to stand amid the shifting sands of postmodernity As Cardinal Thomas Collins Archbishop of Toronto writes in his Foreword Now as in the first century Christians face martyrdom and those who are not called to die for Christ are called to live for Christ in a world which in many ways rejects the Gospel More than ever we need the apocalyptic vision to have our own vision of reality clarified and to be strengthened in our evangelical witness    The New Republic Herbert David Croly,1993
