Appliance Smart Return Policy:

Home Appliances Marketing and Consumer Behaviour Dr. S. Vijayalakshmi, 2018-02-20 About the Book Home Appliances Marketing and Consumer Behaviour is an academic and application oriented book that examines consumer behaviour and retail marketing practices in the home appliances sector within a fast changing technology driven marketplace. The book highlights how modern retail environments shaped by rapid information flow evolving customer expectations and intensified competition require marketers and retailers to apply structured consumer behaviour insights for effective segmentation positioning and relationship building. Blending theory with practical marketing perspectives the book is written to support both undergraduate and postgraduate learners while also offering actionable insights for marketing practitioners. It places particular emphasis on retail marketing strategies customer satisfaction and the role of consumer behaviour research in guiding decisions related to merchandising service delivery and loyalty creation in the home appliances category. The content is organized into five structured chapters Introduction Review of Literature Research Methodology Data Analysis and Discussions and Conclusion and Recommendations supported by an appendix and references. This structure makes the book suitable for academic learning research reference and practice oriented study.
