These authors suggest that the current research is insufficient to justify a recommendation to screen for depression in the primary care setting. They suggest that future research should focus on the development of a brief, validated, and reliable screening tool that can be used in the primary care setting. They also suggest that future research should focus on the development of a brief, validated, and reliable intervention that can be used in the primary care setting.

Surviving American Medicine Cary Presant MD, 2012-09-21 We live in a time when the business of health care has superseded the care of health. Health care reform isn't just political rhetoric; it's a reality. Virtually every American understands that we are experiencing dramatic changes in the delivery of health care and the insurance programs that pay for it. In Surviving American Medicine, Dr. Cary Presant lays the foundation to help you take control of these issues and help you become your own advocate with inside tips about getting the best doctors, good insurance, safe hospitals, and affordable medicines from an author and physician who is a national expert on health care. Relying on his forty years of experience, Presant empowers you to work with your team of doctors, nurses, hospitals, and even insurance companies to maintain your health and prolong your life. He helps you learn to make choices about your health so you feel confident you're getting the best treatment possible.

Assisted Living Administration and Management Review Darlene Yee-Melichar, Cristina Flores, Andrea Renwanz Boyle, 2021-11-23 This book is a must-have resource for anyone preparing for RC AL licensure. The book provides both regulatory and day-to-day operational questions that will allow current and future leaders in long-term care and assisted living to be successful senior leaders in the senior care field. Doody's Review Service 3 stars. Contains more than 300 practice questions and answers. Assisted Living Administration and Management Review is the first practical question-based study guide for anyone preparing for certification or licensure exams in residential care and assisted living RC AL administration. Organized according to the original five domains of practice established by the National Association of Long Term Care Administrator Boards (NAB) and used in Assisted Living Administration and Management Effective Practices and Model Programs in Elder Care, Second Edition, the book reflects the type of questions seen on the state and national exams. Answers and brief rationales have been provided in a final chapter organized according to the five domains of practice or knowledge areas of responsibility: Organizational Management, Human Resources Management, Business and Financial Management, Environmental Management, and Resident Care Management. Written by certified assisted living administrators and licensed health professionals and featuring questions relevant to all state-based exams, this is the authoritative study guide for anyone seeking professional certification/licensure in this growing line of service. The review begins with a comprehensive introduction to the current professional landscape of residential care and assisted living administration, in addition to coverage of the different certification and licensure programs available. The following domain-based chapters feature multiple-choice, single-best-answer questions covering all core knowledge areas of responsibility that one is likely to see when taking state or national exams. Containing over 300 practice questions with rationales to encourage self-assessment and further learning, this is a must-have resource for students and professionals seeking RC AL administrator certification or licensure.

Key Features: Over 300 multiple-choice, single-best-answer questions.
