After the first few days, the new students were assigned to a dormitory. During the first year, the dormitory was located in the basement of the university building. The dormitory was a large, open room with many beds and a common bathroom. The students were required to share a bed and a common bathroom. The dormitory was a large, open room with many beds and a common bathroom. The students were required to share a bed and a common bathroom.

These full readings of the two poems provide the two Colleges with the following comparative framework, and give them the opportunity to make their own judgements about the two poems in the context of a comparative reading exercise. The poems are also available in their original versions, without any annotations, for the students to read and interpret for themselves.
