Numeracy Across the Curriculum Marilyn Goos, Vince Geiger, Shelley Dole, Helen Forgasz, Anne Bennison, 2020-07-16 Being numerate involves more than mastering basic mathematics Numeracy connects the mathematics learned at school with out of school situations that require capabilities such as problem solving critical judgment and sense making related to non mathematical contexts This book provides prospective and practising teachers with practical research based strategies for embedding numeracy across the primary and secondary school curriculum Based on the authors ten year research program the text explains what numeracy is and how numeracy has developed as an educational goal It describes in detail the five dimensions of the authors model attention to real life contexts application of mathematical knowledge use of physical representational and digital tools

the promotion of positive dispositions towards the use of mathematics to solve problems encountered in day to day life and a critical orientation to interpreting mathematical results and making evidence based judgements There is guidance on how to embed numeracy across all subjects within the curriculum how to assess numeracy learning and how to deal with challenges and dilemmas including working with discipline boundaries and developing support resources Featuring practical examples and case studies throughout this book will build pre service teacher confidence demystify common misconceptions and grounds theory into practice in this vital area of student competency The authors of this text are recognised authorities on numeracy They have engaged heavily in numeracy research over many years and this text reflects the depth of their understanding and knowledge Geoff Hilton University of Queensland

Realising Innovative Partnerships in Educational Research Rachel McNae, Bronwen Cowie, 2017-07-18 Realising Innovative Partnerships in Educational Research examines the underlying principles and actions that support the development of and engagement in partnerships in educational research With social justice at its core the work in this book represents various architectures of innovation whereby new ways of thinking about partnership research are proposed and practices of teaching and learning are reconciled or not with existing education contexts and practices With contributions from educational researchers and practitioners from New Zealand and international commentaries provided by established scholars in the field the book draws together key experiences and insights from students teachers community members and researchers in tertiary community school and early childhood settings The research in this book seeks to address a gap in our understanding extending knowledge beyond simply the benefits of partnership work to examine how successful partnerships can be initiated enacted and sustained over time This book invites reflection on the following provocations Why engage in partnerships for educational research How has this happened in the past and what needs to happen for the future What is unique about the New Zealand context and what might researchers in other countries learn from our collaborative and culturally responsive research methodologies What could be some of the underlying principles that support the development of and engagement in collaborative research How do we evaluate the effectiveness of research partnerships in education to shift the focus to the future

International Aerospace Abstracts, 1997 Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies
