The African Book Publishing Record ,2003 African Books in Print ,1978 Imagining Multilingual Schools Ofelia García, Tove Skutnabb-Kangas, Maria E. Torres-Guzmán, 2006 This book brings together visions and realities of multilingual schools throughout the world in order to examine the pedagogical socioeducational and sociopolitical issues that impact on their development and success The chapters describe and analyze pedagogical instructional and policy efforts to develop multilingualism through school with different targeted populations immigrant students indigenous peoples traditional minorities majorities and multiethnic multilingual groups Each contribution many written by well known scholars in the field of bilingual and multilingual education affirms the desirability of multilingualism as a societal resource and as a right of individuals while acknowledging the social economic and political differences that make the acquisition of multilingualism easy for some and difficult for others And yet the book focuses on the school as a place of promise and resistance having the potential to preserve recover and expand the world's linguistic diversity The introduction written by the co editors identifies the conceptual threads that are developed throughout the chapters But the chapters themselves remind us of the importance of local conditions despite the global pressures of the 21st century in imagining and creating multilingual educational spaces

Education Statistics ,2005 Handbook of Literacy in Diglossia and in Dialectal Contexts Elinor Saiegh-Haddad, Lior Laks, Catherine McBride, 2022-03-14 This volume is the first published collection of papers on the impact of diglossia and dialectal variations on language and literacy acquisition impairment and education The authors are pioneering in this field and are leading researchers with substantial experience in conducting research in this area A wide range of areas and languages are covered including the US South Africa Israel and various European countries The chapters present novel data and insights regarding the role of dialectal variations on language and literacy from a wide range of countries and perspectives These insights have significant theoretical and practical implications A majority of literacy learners worldwide are taught to read and write in a language variety or a dialect that is not the same as their spoken language Not only is this the global norm but it is probably also the greatest obstacle to literacy learning This volume is the first published collection of papers on the role of dialect in language and literacy acquisition impairment and education in a variety of languages and situations across Europe the Middle East North America Africa and Asia The authors are pioneers in this field Cambridge School Certificate Examinations ... African Languages Catalogue ,2005 Namibian Books in Print ,2004 Owners of Learning Jennifer Hays, 2016 This book describes the Nyae Nyae Village Schools an innovative and unique mother tongue education initiative set in north eastern Namibia Inspired by the optimism of Independence the project was designed in close consultation with the Ju hoansi community in the early 1990s Drawing upon their traditional knowledge transmission strategies and initiated in a supportive political environment the project exemplified best practice During the following two decades the Village Schools have transitioned from a donor supported project to government schools and have received much attention and support from donors civil society organisations researchers and others However the students still do not seem to succeed in the mainstream schools Why is this Based on long term field work in the region including interviews with Nyae Nyae residents over several years and work with involved organisations the book addresses this question Contextualising the Village Schools within post Independence Namibia southern African history and the global indigenous rights movement it examines the enormous paradoxes that schooling presents for the Nyae Nyae community Owners of Learning is the English translation of the Ju hoansi word for teacher and it serves to highlight a fundamental question to whom does education belong
